NEW YORK EXCHANGE.

LONDON QUOTATIONS GIVE CONSOLS LOWER AND AMERICANS IRREGULAR — REPORTS OF TRADE BY DUN AND BRADSTREET ARE BOTH SATISFACTORY — BANK STATEMENT SO FAR AS UNFAVORABLE HAS BEEN DISCOUNTED.

New York, Sept. 2.

The market for Americans in London shows a considerable irregularity, but in the main prices are said to be well up to our close. Conflicting reports as to the situations in the Transvaal are reflected in a decline of Consols $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1-16.

The feeling on the other side, however, seems to be that there will be a peaceful settlement, and there is said to be a growing bullish sentiment on Americans.

In spite of the heavy September disbursements yesterday's money market did not show a hardening tendency. The highest for call money was 4 p.c. Still a great many loans were made at 3 p.c. Both R. G. Dun and Bradstreet report trade conditions as extremely satisfactory. The trading element are inclined to expect an unfavorable bank statement to-day, but as the markets have been easy for the past few days, it seems quite likely that such a statement may have been largely discounted.
