Chicago—Wheat opened steady on strong cables and reacted ¼ cent. now at last night's closing.

Don't see anything to buy wheat on. Trade in wheat light; no snap to market. Ohio reports say that the condition of growing wheat crop in Ohio has decreased 19 points since January 1st, and is now placed at only 56 per cent. of an average condition for this season of the year. Damage is attributed to severe freezing, with no snow protection, following closely upon attack by fly in fall, and early winter months. Not in many years has crop showed worse than now. Corn opened ½ higher, and strong at 35½. Oats—Dull and steady. Provisions—Opened strong. The demand is good.
