On motion of Mr. Patrick, seconded by Mr. Hanson, Messrs. R. D. Guy and Gerald F. de C. O'Grady were appointed Auditors of the Association.

The President announced that the Minister of Justice had intimated that members of the Cabinet would be prepared to meet at 10.30 the special Committee of the Association appointed to take up with the Government the question of increased compensation for the Judges, and the following sub-committee was appointed to arrange for the manner in which the representations of the Association should be urged upon the Government: Messrs. Lafleur (Convener) McInnes, Teed, Baxter, Meredith, Warburton, Proudfoot, Ludwig and Patrick. At the suggestion and on the advice of the Committee, the Judges who were present were requested to express their views at a private interview with members of the Government, and the President was asked to introduce the Judges and to explain that it was at the instance of the Canadian Bar Association that they were present to meet the Government. At 10.30 an adjournment took place in order to enable the members of the Bar present to proceed to the office of the Minister of Justice as the Special Committee on the question of Judicial salaries. The deputation, which was received by the Rt. Hon. C. J. Doherty, Rt. Hon. A. L. Sifton and Hon. N. W. Rowell, was introduced by the President of the Association. Mr. Robert McKay, K.C., of Toronto, expressed the views of the Committee and brief addresses in support of his representations were made by Mr. F. E. Meredith, K.C., Montreal; Mr. L. S. St. Laurent, K.C., Quebec; Mr. Hector McInnes, K.C., Halifax:
