NOTES ON LATIN INSCRIPTIONS FOUND IN BRITAIN.

PART VI.

BY THE REV. JOHN McCAUL, LL.D., PRESIDENT OF UNIV. COLL., TORONTO.

26. In the University of Glasgow a monumental tablet is preserved, which was found many years ago in the Roman Station at Ardoch in Scotland. It is figured in Stuart's Caledonia Romana, (ed. Prof. Thomson, pl. v. fig. 5.) and the following explanation is given of the inscription:—

DIS MANIBVS
AMMONIVS DA
MIONIS * COH
I HISPANORVM
STIPENDIORVM
XXVII HEREDES

"To the shade of Amraonius Damion, Centurion of the First Cohort of the Spanish Stipendieries, who served for 27 years, his heirs have erected this monument."

To this translation are subjoined notes to the effect, that others have regarded Damionis as governed by filius or servus understood; and that it would perhaps be more correct to join xxvii to heredes,—i.e. his twenty-seven heirs.

Horsley (Britannia Romana, p. 205) expresses his preference for considering Damionis as the nominative case, and compares such names as Petilius Cerealis.
