life has been largely devoted since to his recovery. She saw and recognized him at one of her summer encampments in Michigan. In dread of an assassin be fied. The Indian girl Inawena, great-grand daughter of Orogoggo, Chief of the Rock of Gold, nursed him until he was alarmed at the idolatrous nature of her was alarmed at the idolatrous nature of her love. He fled again. You know the rest of his adventures following that flight. Eurynia, to overtake, nurse, and protect wounded Lillymere from the insane assassin, assumed in disguise costume of a Scottish Highland Chieftain, calling herself Donal Clandonal. She came to Conway and was recognized as Essel Bell, by your friend the wife of Deacon Reache at the Manage of Rame's wedding?" Pearly, at the Mayor of Rama's wedding."

"Mrs. Pearly told me of this recognition, but nothing of Essel being the Donna Eurynia."

"Mrs. Pearly did not know; and for sake of Lillymere, then wandering in flight from the assassin, it was undesirable that Essel Bell should disclose she was the Donna Eury-nia of Florida. She hoped to find the youth, and conceal him with her people in some of the encampments until a time, when his identity as heir of Earl Royalfort could be accurted with satety." asserted with safety."

"Your ladyship has received much information in short time." As it seems to affect my poor fortunes, now or prospectively, may Linquire from whom?"

"From Agnes; and from one of the two ladies who accompanied Agnes to the review at Logan's Farm.

"They had names, my lady?"

"One had a name." "Gracious lady, say what the name was! Say she knew Roy Rouben to be Lady Mortimer's secretary. Knew she that? Cared she to know? Was she in joy at knowing?"
