ORIENTAL ELECTRIC BELT CO. - 155 QUEEN ST. WEST.

"THERE," said Mrs. Highflyer, as her daughter ceased from torturing one of the high-numbered "ops" of Beethoven, "that's what I call a finished performance, eh, Mr. Jones?" And Mr. Jones nodded and said, "thank Heaven!"—Ex.

A CONGRESSMAN'S daughter had been receiving a young man's attentions until the father thought it was time he was knowing something about it. "Celestine," he said last night, when the young man was announced, "is n't it about time some definite conclusion was being arrived at in this matter?" "Quite time, papa," she replied in a matter-of-fact way. "Well, daughter, is there any prospect of a conclusion?" "I can't really say, papa. You see he is on the calendar as unfinished business, and—" "Enough, daughter, enough," he interrupted, putting up his hands, and the girl went down stairs to complete the quorum.—Washington Critic.
