BAFFLES HUMAN CONCEPTION

Nature's all-powerful healer is discovered and when imbibed freely radiates the arterial network of the body, absorbs and rushes off all effete, deadly poisonous matter. Also it contains all the sixteen elements of ripe molecular life, builds up every weak part, restores nerve and vital power, is the sunshine of life, the wonderful. So say all that use St. Leon Water.

HON. DAVID MILLS.

By general consent the ablest speech delivered in Parliament this session was that of Hon. David Mills against the second reading of the Redistribution Act. It is credited with having raised the debate to a statesmanlike level. It used to be the fashion to sneer at Mr. Mills, though his would-be despisers could find no harsher title to bestow upon him than the really flattering one of "Philosopher." He has made good his right to this title, by showing a disposition to submit all public questions to patient and laborious study, and his speeches are always such as might be expected from a scholar rather than those of a popular orator. Mr. Mills is now a member of the legal profession, having been called to the bar but a short time ago. He was Minister of the Interior in the Mackenzie Cabinet, and proved himself a most competent head of that department. While he is a strong party man, he is never bitter, and he commands the respect and esteem of both sides of the House. His home is near Highgate, Ont., where, in seasons of release from legal and Parliamentary business, he leads the quiet life of a country gentleman.
