Bank for November shows deposits during during the day. Intimate friends gathered with the grief stricken and almost frantic relatives about the bedsile, while in the spacious hall an! parlors below a sad faced throng remained in husbed expectation. The et fled sohs of the wife and children and the inarriculate atterences of the dying man, as shortly after two c'clock he regained sufficient consciousness to recognize his wife, were audible at times throughout the mansion. At 2.55 Dr. Box er came out of the sick room, and said to one who was wairing for intelligence, "Simply say he is dying." with its end ended the life of the warrior statesman. ' The scene," said Dr. Baxar. " was one of the saddest I have ever witnessed. All present were deeply till each. The grief of Mrs. Legan and her smildren was pitifed in the extreme. It is stated that the hody will no doubt be taken to I'lln is for burial, but no definite arranger in a fir the funeral will be made until Mes Leg n, who is wholly prostrate, one be can ulted. Gr. OPIUM ESCAPADE OF AN ACTRESS

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 26.-An opium den was raided list night and eleven of the parties taken therefrom were in a complete state of stupefac-tion. One of the pris ners to-day, a young woman, stylishly attired in a sealskin ulster and wearing brilliant diamonds, gave her name as Miss Nellie White, and in a very indignant tone of voice informed the magistrate that she was an actress on her way to New York to fuifil an engagem nt, and she desired to go at once. The Justice, impressed with her story, told her if she would leave the city and not do any more acting here she could go. The others were fined.

TORY GREED.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—Though private gossip interprets the political situation to be un-changed, it is known that the bulk of the Conservatives are opposed to Hartington being the successor of Churchill and wish to maintain a purely Conservative Cabinet, holding that the vacancy in the Ministry should be filled by one of their own number. Chamberlain's recent speech at Birmingham has greatly impressed Home Rulers with the prospect of a reunion of the Liberal party. the Liberal party.

A FORCED MARRIAGE

HOW A VIRGINIA GIRL WAS CELIGED TO MARRY AN ENGLISH TOURIST.

Lynchetra, Va., December 23 .-- The tolwin ; perticulars of a most extraordinary occurrence have just been received :- A changes of a particular kind, and he has young girl named Taylor, 15 years of age, of an been heard to remark in a half joenlar tiving near Grayson Sulphur Springs, Grayeen county, was engaged to marry an Engif he manned Rudd, stepping at the springs. The time was fixed for the marriage and all its preparations made when the girl changed her mind and refused to marry him. The Roglishman applied to Squires Alley four hour march tinough a blinding snow. The Englishman applied to Squires Alley storm. His last attack, too, resulted from and Prost for a warrant to arrest the girl. brief exposure to the snewstorm of a Tuey issued it and the girl was brought be fortnight ago, and his death preceded by but fore them to answer the charges preferred, a few minutes the beginning of a neavy flurry | whatever they were. Ruld insisted that the marriage take place then. She refused to comply, but the justices insisted that she must keep her promise or go to prison. The fright ned girl finally consented and the ciremony was quickly performed. There is no doubt whatever of the correctness of theabove statement, and intenso excitement exists in the neighborhood since the facts leaked out.

A LUCKY WOMAN.

Another part of a capital prize in The Louisiana State Lottery has been drawn by a tichet held in this city. The lucky person this time is Mrs. Eliza J. Patterson, who lives at 53 Moulton street, Charlestown. The amount received by her a few days ago from the Boston agents of the Southern Express Company was $15.000, her ticket having been numbered 94,562, which drew onefif h of the capital prize of $75,000. Mrs. Peterson's bushrnd, Mr. Thomas Peterson, has been for several years employed by the Government in its rope works at the Charlestown Navy Yard, and is industrious, pru dent, and much respected by all who know him. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson live in a modest home, with a family of six children, and this unexpected fortune could scarcely have fallen where it would have been more welcome. The money at present is securely invested, and will be partly devoted by its owners to the education of their children .-Boston (Mass.) Courier, Nov. 28.

SERIOUS DIFFERENCES BETWEEN

AUSTRIA AND GERMANY. Berlin, Dec. 25.-Advices from Vienna say it is reported there that a serious differnce exists between the Cabinets of Vicnna and Berlin. It is claimed that Prince Bismarck is serving Russian designs without egard to the interests of Austria, Herr Von Lisza, the Hungarian Premier, it is stated, will soon hold a conference with Count Kalnoky, and will insist that the situation be cleared up, and that Bismarck be asked to declare whether Germany is an ally of Russia or of Austria-Hungary.

TEACHING THE YOUNG MIND.

PARIS, Dec. 26.—There is a noticeable movement to form battalions of schoolboys. A number of mayors of arrondissements have begun culisting youths of from 16 to 20 years of age, forming companies equivalent to the regular militia. They are armed with chassepols. One corps already has 500 members. They take their rifles home with them instead of depositing them in the arsenal after drilling.
