OUR ILLUSTRATION.

“American Aristo” and Mr. J. A. Castor, of Collingwood, Ont., play the prominent parts in our illustration of this issue, and both deserve great credit for the result obtained. This paper has the faculty of bringing out everything there is in a negative in a manner most gratifying to the printer. That its worth is appreciated is shown by the results at the late St. Louis Convention.

EDITORIAL CHAT.

MR. Richard Keene, of Derby, one of Englands most noted Photographers, is President-elect of the English Photographic Convention for 1895. A better selection could not have been made.
