Visit of a Distinguished Oblate.

On last Friday the Very Rev. Mathew Gaughran, O. M. I., Provincial of the Oblates of Great Britain and Ireland arrived in the city and paid a visit to His Grace and the Fathers of St. Mary's church. He is returning from Australia where he has just founded a house of the where he has just founded a nouse of the order at Freemantle, Victoria. He is a brother of His Lordship the Bishop of Kimberley, Orange Free States, South Africa. He has another brother in England, who is a secular priest. The meeting between him and the Rev. Father McCarthy was a happy one after a separation of more than thirty years. They entered the noviciate together in 1862 and have not met since the Rev. Father McCarthy left Ireland for missionary life in the Northwest. The Very Rev. gentleman paid a visit to all the Catholic schools and was very much pleased with all he saw. He left for home on Monday's train.

AN EMINENT PROTESTANT CLERGY-MAN.

On the Manitoba School Question.

Rev. Henry Scott-Holland, M. A., canon of Canterbury cathedral, and one of the foremost preachers and writers in the Church of England, was in the city to-day a guest at the St. Lawrence Hall. He is greatly interested in the Manitoba school question, and, after a careful study of the whole question, is convinced that the Catholic minority is but demanding its rights. "In England we have to fight against secular schools," he said, "and we are very glad of the assistance of the earnest and pious Catholics who are fighting against the same enemy of religion. I had expected by this time that you had got the whole question satisfactorily settled, and as it seems to be a matter of plain right I am surprised that you have not. But then, I suppose, we foreigners do not understand all the political ins and outs of the question.'-Daily Witness.

His Views Upon the Manitoba School Problem.

Six feet high, straight as a poplar, with beautiful white hair, Bishop O'Brien is a notable personality, who in the rotunda of the Windsor Hotel, this morning attracted general attention. The prelate is a ripe scholar, who for the last fifteen years has occupied the position of rector of the Church of Saint Andrea delle Frate at Rome. He speaks and writes in Italian, and wields a trenchant pen in the religious papers of the Eternal City. Previous to his appointment he had charge of a mission at Liverpool. On a short visit to this country His Grace is stopping at the St. Patrick's rectory for a few days.

Very faintly one catches a mellow ac cent which might betray nativity. The manner is polished, the smile cordial the whole personality is engaging.

"Remember that I am only a visitor here, and have no authority to speak," was the answer when his grace was asked to say a word or two on the attitude of the Church towards the education Manitoba school question.

known to need any description. The mortal state is a probationary one, and that the man is made for eternity largely by the kind of religious training he L'Enfant Gustave Droz receives in youth. This Manitoba school question has, I understand, been agitating your country for some time past. I do remember well when poor Bishop Tache was rejoicing to think that the question was settled and settled forever. University, intermediate and primary schools were settled, as he thought, upon a basis which did equal justice to the Protestants and the Catholics. In fact the original arrangement was made in the interests of became a majority they overturned this agreement, which was conceived in their own interests.
