THE GREAT GAZETTEE: LIPPINCOTT'S

Pronouncing Gazetteer of the World. GEOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY

ONTAINING a greater amount of mattor than any other single volume in the English Language. Educal by J. THOMAS M.D., & T. BALDWIN,

Edited by J. THOMAS M.D., & T. BALDWIN,
Assisted by several other gentlemen.
The above work (upon which over five years of continued labor and rescarch, with a large outlay of money, has been expended) has not been published merely to supply the deficiencies of existing Gazetteers, but to furnish a tecographical Dictionary which should be as comprehensive in its design, as perfect in its arrangement, and as complete and accurate in its execution as the best dictionary or the English Language.

Language.
Among the many claims to superiority which this work has over all others of the kind are the following:

1st It is a PRONOUNCING GAZETTEER.

1st It is a PRONOUNCING GAZETTEER, a feature as essential to the completeness of a Geographical Dictionary, as to a Dictionary of the English Language.

2nd It contains above 20,000 more Geographical names than any other Gazetteer of the World. And the notices of all important places will also be found far more full and satisfactory than in any other similar work.

3rd In regard to Accuracy and Recontness of Information it will be found inco oparably superior to every other.

perior to every other.

The "PRONOUNCING GAZETEER, or GEOGRAPHICAL DICTIONART," coutsins above 2100 pages.

The Churchman's Friend, FOR THE DIPPUSION OF INCORMATION RELATIVE TO THE United Church of England and Ireland

Her Doctrines and Her Ordinances.

Edited by Clerrymon.] [Published Monthly PARIS, 1st OCTOBER, 1855. PROSPROTES. The CHURCHMAN'S FRIEND is intended to supoly a want, which, we believe, every Conadian Clergyman must have often and paintaily expe-The Theology which we wish to impact is apty and honestly expressed in the first motor which we placed at the head of our publication, "Quod semper, quod about that, which always, which every where, which by all has been believed," for that only is the faith of the Catholic Church. While the temper and spirit in which we desire to convey these truths, is with equal simplicity and correctness indicated by our second morto, In necessariis "In necessary things unity, in doubtful things liberty, in all things charity."

With this object in view, we purpose to issue, for the present, one number monthly, commencing on the 1-t October; but we hope considerably to enlarge, or to publish more frequently, as soon as we receive the requisite amount encouragement. A large proportion of sich number will be filled with original matter a the form of short tracts, dialogues, and tales; the principles we wish to advocate, will make up the contents. While we hope to offer matter sufficiently interesting as to make it no: without value even to the more highly educated at will be our endeavour to clothe it in such plain and emple language, as to render our little publica-tion a welcome visitor in the form house and the cottage, and a source of possure, as well as profit to both young and old. For the young especially, some portion of our space will always be set apart; and we venture to suggest to clergy men and superintendents of Sunday Schools, the advantage of encouraging their elderly scholars to avail themselves of the reduced terms offered to those who subscribe for a number of copies .-They vill thus be furnishing the young persons committed to their charge with a supply of reading, at once sound in its teaching and attractive in character, and at the same time be lightening their ownlabor.

We beg particlearly to call attention to out terms of publication, from which it will be seen that eight copies will be forwarded to one address for fifteen shillings, currency, a year, and fifteen copies for £1 five shillings. But as these some are so small that they will not pay for the trouble of collecting, it is absolutely necessary that all subscriptions be paid in advance.

All communications to be addressed (Pest Paid.) to the Editors of the Churchman's Friend, care of J. Greenstreat, Fsq., Paris, C. W.

Attention is particularly directed to the their own labor.

Attention is particularly directed to the fact that the Churchman's Friend will afford an excellent medium for ADVERTISERS.

as the Proprietors have determined to prin at least 1000 monthly. The terms for advertising will be as follows: Six lines and under, 2s. 6d., for the first insertion, and Is. for every subsequent insertion. Ten lines and under 3s. 9d. for the first insertion, and 1s. 3d. for every subsequent insertion.
