ENDRASH 123.Mand .a

Regehr, E., Robinson, B., Rosenblum, S., "Making Canada a Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone", Ploughshare Monitor, June 1987, pp. 16-18.

Further Reading

"Nuclear Weapon-Free Zones and Zones of Peace" The United Nations and Disarmament 1945-1985, United Nations, 1985, pp. 89-106.

Clarkson, S., "Continuity or Change: A Non-Nuclear Choice?", Canada and the Reagan Challenge, Toronto, Lorimer and Co., 1985, pp. 267-269.

Regehr, E., Canada and the Arms Race, Toronto, Lorimer and Co., 1983.

years that there has been any progress. In an attempt to Tatilitate """ action, the forty-nation CD established the AC Hoc working Group on Chemical Watemas in Tabo We while all CD participating where represented. " Their first task was to define the the first states where where the task water should cover. The 1925 Geneva Protocol wohists was on chemical watered bounded of the the states protocol wohists was one there are represented. Their first task was to define the the first states where the task of should cover. The 1925 Geneva Protocol wohists was one there are the possible of the states of the the states of the first of the task of the states of the states of the the states of the first stock with the states of the state the task of the first of the states of the states of the development, phonoid the state the stractive are of the states in the development, phonoid the state of the transfer and use of chemical watered the development, phonoid the traction document which identified the states of the state of the state of the document which identified the states of states of the state outlined areas of agreement and disagreement, a state of the state outlined areas of agreement and disagreement, a state of the state outlined areas of agreement and disagreement, a state of the state outlined areas of agreement and disagreement, a state of the state outlined areas of agreement and disagreement, a state of the output outlined areas of agreement and disagreement and areas of a state outlined areas of agreement and disagreement areas of a state of the state outlined areas of agreement and disagreement and areas is the state of the outlined areas of agreement and disagreement are acquent isoment to not to a state outlined areas of agreement and disagreement areas isomet and a state outlined areas of agreement and disagreement areas of a constrated of the outlined areas of a state of the state

In 1984 the United States put forward a proposal for a ban on chemical weapons which warked as incortant step in the CD negotiations on chemical weapons. This proposal was noteworthy in suggesting verification by and all challenge inspections - suggestion and all of proposal of plants suggesting of the challenge inspections - suggesting that the contract of plants suggesting that the cheating of the contract of