

The Consular Division initiates the drafting of consular agreements with other countries; advises on consular procedures; oversees the completing and amending of the Manual of Consular Instructions; maintains liaison with other departments and organizations concerned with matters of a consular nature.