

Conclusion

Mr. President, I have outlined in broad terms the position of the Canadian Government on the principal issues confronting this Session. I wish to stress again the need for real and not imagined progress, for plans and negotiations and not paper and rhetoric. We are determined to play a positive role, to use our resources and our influence, in the efforts to bring about constructive change in the international economic system and thereby to reduce the gap between rich and poor nations. It is our hope that this Session will be a major step in that direction.
