

Business of the House

discharge our duty, I find it amazing and highly irresponsible on the part of members of the C.C.F. and Social Credit parties and the government, who support them in this move, to seek to cut short the work of parliament before a proper normal session has been allowed to come to its usual ending. We of this party wish to make it clear once and for all that we believe the work of parliament must be carried out and completed in an orderly fashion and that legislation of public importance should be attended to by members of the house even if it is necessary for them to curtail their own holidays in order to do so. That is the purpose of the amendment which has been moved and which I support.

The house divided on the amendment (Mr. Nowlan) which was negatived on the following division:

Mr. Gardiner: I was paired with the hon. member for Souris (Mr. Ross). Had I voted, I would have voted against the amendment.

(Translation):

Mr. Gagnon: Mr. Speaker, I was paired with the hon. member for Temiscouata (Mr. Pouliot). That is the reason why I have not voted.

(Text):

Mrs. Fairclough: Mr. Speaker—

Mr. Noseworthy: Mr. Speaker—

Mrs. Fairclough: Is the hon. member announcing a pair?

Some hon. Members: Go on.

Mrs. Fairclough: Mr. Speaker, unless hon. members are announcing pairs I propose to speak on the motion now before the house.

Mr. James Sinclair (Coast-Capilano): I move, seconded by the hon. member for Montmagny-L'Islet (Mr. Lesage):

That the hon. member for York South (Mr. Noseworthy) be now heard.

Mrs. Fairclough: I was quite willing to extend the courtesy to hon. members who wished to announce pairs, but I claim the privilege to speak on this motion.

Mr. Speaker: There has been a motion by the hon. member for Coast-Capilano, seconded by the hon. member for Montmagny-L'Islet, that the hon. member for York South be now heard.

Mrs. Fairclough: I think I have the right to be heard. There was some confusion in the house due to some hon. members announcing their pairs.

Mr. Speaker: I refer hon. members to standing order 35, which reads:

When two or more members rise to speak, Mr. Speaker calls upon the member who first rose in his place; but a motion may be made that any member who has risen "be now heard," or "do now speak" which motion shall be forthwith put without debate.
