Some hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Speaker: I declare the nays have it. And more than five members having risen:

Mr. Speaker: Call in the members. Is it agreed that the members are in?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Mr. Speaker: Is the house ready for the question?

Some hon. Members: Question.

Mr. Speaker: The question is on the amendment as amended, which reads as follows:

This government has failed up to this time to give a clear statement of policy respecting Canada's national defence, and has failed to organize the business of the house so that the 1963-1964 estimates and budget could be introduced, and has failed to outline a positive program of follow-up action respecting many things for which this parliament and previous parliaments have already given authority, and does not have the confidence of the Canadian people.

All those in favour of the amendment as amended will please rise.

During the taking of the vote:

Mr. Speaker: Order. It is of some help to hear the Second Clerk Assistant and also the Clerk of the House, so if hon. members will maintain the proprieties of this house during the roll call vote we will proceed.
