

CONTENTS.

— — — — —

PAGE.

PAGE.

were impracticable. Action at German-town.
Mud Island and Red Bank abandoned by the Americans. General Howe returns with the British Troops to Philadelphia. Americans encamp at Valley Forge..... 213

CHAP. XII.

Arrival of the British Commissioners for restoring Peace. Their bad Success. Correspondence between Lord Carlisle, and the Marquis de la Fayette. Philadelphia evacuated. Battle near Monmouth. General Lee, tried by a Court Martial, and suspended. Monsieur Gerrard arrives Minister Plenipotentiary from France. British Army arrives at New York. French Fleet appears before Sandy Hook. Sails to Rhode Island.
Lord Howe sails to the Relief of Rhode Island.
British and French Fleets separated at the point of engaging by a violent Storm. French Fleet sails for Boston and is pursued by Lord Howe.
General Sullivan abandons Rhode Island. French Fleet sails for the West Indies. Attacks St.
Lucia, but is repulsed. Province of Georgia reduced by the British. The Author makes his escape into New York. His Narrative..... 238

CHAP. XIII.

Southern Affairs. General Lincoln appointed to the Southern Command. Victory at Briar's Creek.
St. James's, St. John's and Port Royal taken.
Northern Affairs. Connecticut Expedition. Stoney Point stormed by the Americans. D'Estaing's Attempt. against Savannah. Count Polaskie mortally wounded. Some Account of his Life.
Colonel Maitland's Death. His Character. Ame-