

BY-LAWS

44. Every by-law shall be introduced by a motion for leave, specifying its title, or a motion to appoint a committee to prepare and bring it in, or by an order from the Council on the report of a committee.

45. No By-Law shall be committed or amended until it shall have been twice read and any amendment thereto shall be made only in Committee of the Whole Council.

46. Every by-law shall receive three separate readings previous to being finally passed.

47. All by-laws shall be read and passed, clause by clause, in committee of the whole, between the second and third readings.

48. All amendments made in committee shall be reported to the Council, and by it adopted, amended or rejected, before the third reading.

49. In Committee of the Whole all By-Laws shall be read by the chairman, and be debated upon clause by clause, and severally read and submitted by the chairman.

50. By-Laws of a private nature shall be introduced by petition to be presented by some member.

51. Any member intending to make a motion to amend any existing By-Law, shall give at least one day's previous notice in writing of his intention therein.
