

CHAPTER VI.

FROM VANCOUVER TO SAN FRANCISCO, ETC.

Departure from Vancouver—Boating down the Columbia—Embarkation on board of the Cowlitz, the grand epoch of my journey—Damage from lightning—Bar of the Columbia—Discovery of Columbia, comparative merits of Heeeta, Meares and Gray—Disputed territory, claims of United States—Christmas day, home and abroad—Whales—Cape Mendocino—New Albion and California—Bodega and Ross, Russian American Company, Russian sovereignty—Russian discoveries—Russia and England—Sir Francis Drake, past and present—First glance of California—Port of San Francisco, discovered by land—Upper California, motives for colonizing it—San Francisco, entrance of harbor—Presidios—Siege of a mud kitchen—General description of harbor—Russians and English, compared with Californians—Yerba Buena 146

72

CHAPTER VII.

SAN FRANCISCO.

More detailed description of harbor—Native balsa—Whalers, San Francisco and Sandwich Islands—Trade in hides—Foreigners—Indolence of people—Branding, &c. of cattle—Value of herds—Missions, their rise and fall—Express by land to Monterey—Timothy Murphy—Father Quigas—Summary justice—General Vallejo—Breakfast, cookery—Valley of Sonoma—Lasso—Civilization of aborigines—General Vallejo's buildings, troops, garden, &c.—Dinner, ball, and Captain Prado—"Auld Lang Sync"—Paradise of wild fowl—Captain Sutter's history and prospects—Anglicization of San Francisco—Californian justice—Mission of San Francisco, old and new times—Mission of Santa Clara—Prospects of priesthood—Revenue laws 162

CHAPTER VIII.

MONTEREY.

Voyage to Monterey—Landing—Town, buildings, and furniture, &c.—Neighborhood—Christening of bridge—Mr. Spence—Governor Alvarado—Unsophisticated cockney—Californian ignorance—Mr. Ermatinger's journey from Vancouver to Monterey—Murderous desecration of baptism—Selfishness and indifference of public authorities—Compromiso with custom-house—Schooner California, untried convicts—Revenue laws, impolitic and oppressive—Spanish America in general, its fiscal and political condition—Contrast between Spanish and English colonies—Fruits of Spanish American independence—Pueblo of Branciforte—Mission of Santa Cruz—Mission of San Carlos, past and present 189

CHAPTER IX.

SANTA BARBARA.

Voyage from Monterey—Mrs. Wilson—Von Resanoff and Donna Concepcion—Town, situation and buildings, &c.—Inhabitants, manners and dress and customs, &c.—

Quête Lake,
ion—Plunge
female horse-
—Kootonais
es—Mr. and
and d'Oreille
ion—Native
n Colville—
—Chaudière
nd Contée—
es Rapids—
r. Manger—
ltic rocks—
—Long Nar-
ades—Pillar

72

e Cowlitz—Cheenylis—
er—Frazer's
—Quakeolth
Food, &c., or generally—
a Newettes
chief—Native
nger of ship-
e Laughlin—
Simpson—tikine—The ssrs. Shakes undance of
nal—Anake
• 106

—Departure
Indian fight
—Newettes,
nts—Dense
—Influence
ca and Ad-
aves—Rev.
netto Settle-
• 129