Following Lines of Procedure:

1st. To provide for the immediate necessities of Veterans and the Allies.

2nd.....To aid discharged Veterans of good character. Bring their qualifications for office or mechanical trades to the attention of manufacturers and employees of labor to secure work for the men.

3rd. To institute facilities for technical and commercial training, advance the prospects of Returned Soldiers and Sailors till peace is declared, or the period arrives for the disbandment of the overseas forces.

4th. To assist the Dominion and Provincial Governments in plans they have for soldiers and sailors' homes. To aid the Government, Railroad or Colonization companies for the settlement of Veterans on land, and establishment of farm colonies.

5th. To extend a welcome invitation to discharged Veterans—officers, N.C.O.'s and men—and to all on active service to join the Army and Navy Veterans for the mutual betterment of their social life, the establishment of a permanent spirit of comradeship, and to consolidate together the wearers of khaki after, and during the war.

6th. To right wrongs. Demand just dues, and what is lawfully coming. To work in harmony, prevent domination or attempt of it over a comrade in distress. To help men not employed. To visit the sick. To aid wives, widows, mothers and children of Veterans and men on active ser-
