The problem of the unemployed was unther considered by the board of ontrel resterday.

Ald Dunn introduced a delegation of the British Welcome League, tho asked for an appropriation of 1,000 with which to lodge and feed the unemployed. A list of the Earlsart men out of work was submitted.
6 board will ask the Social Service

ommission to investigate and report of the appropriation of $1,000 fill probably be made.

Commissioner Harris reported that the control of t d up in various places and will pro-ide work for small gangs. Several treet gradings are to be started, and

"There's the place to put that $25,000 voted by the council," said Mayor Hocken. "It will be mostly wheelrrow work, and any man can do

"Best kind of an investment," Controller O'Neith followed up. The $25,-000 that Commissioner Chambers did not get last year for park grading will now be given him at once, and he will have hundreds of unemployed pushing wheelbarrows in weather above or be-odd jobs, such as snow shoveling.

Commissioner Wilson has arranged to give each of them a couple of days' work cleaning up the debris at the cattle market annex.
Secretary Dickie of the Social Service Commission, reported that a vice Commission, reported that a registration bureau for the unemployed would be opened on Colborne street, near Scott street, at 9 a.m. to-morrow, and that the Y.M.C.A. has loaned a qualified man to run it. An appropriation of $1,000 was made for
