Jersey City Smothers World's Champions-Many Games on Sunday.

NASHVILLE. Tenn., April 11.—The first move in the reconstruction of the Toronto Club was made this morning, when Pitcher Gilbert was ordered to report to Manager Kelley at Richmond. Gilbert is a left-hander and an old Terre Häute team.mate of Pick and Kroy, who recommended him highly. He was sold to Denver, but, disliking that place, bought his own release. He was with the Chicago Cubs last spring, but his wildness during the training period caused his return to the minors. Despite the rain and cold in the morning, the Leafs had a two-hour workout, but the rain fell in torrents just before the hour scheduled for Saturday's game with Nashville, and the contest was called off. After the Sunday game the Leafs leave for Bristol, playing there on Monday, and at Richmond on Tuesday and Wednesday. At Jersey City.-The Jersey City In up. The score:

OFF-SIDE INTERFERENCS MADE LEGAL BY INTERCOLLEGIATE RUGBY UNION

But Only in Line of Scrimmage, Which is a Space of Four Yards-No More Goal Judges-Slight Changes in the Rules.

KINGSTON, April 12.—The rules commission of the Intercollegiate Rugby Football Union in session at the Frontenac Hotel on Saturday afternoon until midnight passed some very important changes, all of which were put thru by unanimous vote. The members of the newly formed commission were much pleased over the result of the meeting.

President H. C. Griffith, Toronto, was in the chair. Other members present were: Prof. Lindsay Malcom, Queen's: Secretary Dr. W. B. Hendry, Toronto; Cadet MacAuley, Royal Military College; B. O. Sliter, Kingston; Elliott Greene, Peterboro; S. McEvenue, McGill; Prof. J. F. MacDonald, Queen's.

Changes in conducting games included doing away with goal judges and providing a penalty timekeeper. A head linesman is to be introduced whose duties are to inform the referee when yards are made and to control the yardsmen. Authority of the referce is extended over the umptre, whose decision he may overrule, and whom he may even remove.

As regards the rules of play, the more important changes are these:

ball from the centre of their forty-yard line and not at the centre of the field (55-yard line).

"Holding" was defined, and referees are to be instructed to be very strict in nforcing the rule against it. As regards yards for a catch, the three-yard rule remains in force, where a play-er is standing to receive a catch. In case of a running catch or a bounding ball the player is to be given only a fair chance to receive the ball.

The College Rugby Rules Com-mission have made legal only what the clubs were accustomed to indulge in as regards offside interference, tho the tendency in the future will be towards protecting the runner in a greater space than the four yards prescribed. The offside interference rule was fully discussed and very slightly changed. Offside interference is legal only in the line of scrimmage and only for the opening of a hole in the line and only when com-mitted by players who were in the line of scrimmage when the ball was put into play.

In case of a blocked kick on the third down, the side in possession shall not retain possession unless the ball, before it is dead, passes beyond the line of scrim-The penalty for offside in the serim-mage and for illegal of side interference remains as before, except that when the

On all these changes the decisions of the com-mission were unanimous.

The instructions to referees as to the The instructions to referees as to the interpretation of certain rules will be much fuller and more explicit. Provision was made for the presence of one of more members of the rules commission at any Intercollegiste game, to observe the work of the referee, and if required by the referee to confer with him on the interpretation of any rule.

Athletic Unions Will Confer Next Saturday

There will be held in Boston on Saturday, April 18, an important athletic conference between President Dr. H. D. Johnson of the Amsteur Athletic Union of Canada, Secretary Crow of the same organization, and the officials of the A. A. U. of the United States, President Alfred J. Lill, jr., Edward E. Babb and Secretary James E. Stillivan. Both governing bodies are members of the international Amateur Athletic Federation, and will recognize its decisions. President Lill, it is explained, some time ago felt that it would be to the interest of sport in general if the Canadian A.A.U. and the A.A.U. of the United States entered into an alliance whereby they would not only recognize each other's decisions and penaities, but would also recognize each other's registration cards. To reach such an agreement, it is understood, is the purpose of the coming conference.

The men's aggregate was won by Mr. W. E. Byrnes of Cleveland, who secured a plus score at every session of the congress, and had a total of 42. S. S. each, thus showing consistent class in their play.

Only three revokes were recorded during the entire evening.

The special event on Saturday morning was the contest for ladies' pairs, and the winners had a narrow margin. In the afternoon the Hay Trophy was played for. This is a competition for pairs who qualify by getting top or second scores in the preceding progressive pair games. The winners played all the north and south hands, while other pairs alternated with east and west. This position is the one weakness with the Howell system, which is so arranged that each pair plays every deal, and a different deal against every other pair. The position referred to above is either a point of decided advantage or disadvantage, according to the sice of the deal on which the "swings" occur, and many players object to holding it.

The feature of the last session was the international pairs. This event is open to all-comers. This was the third consecutive victory for the winners of the contest on Saturday inght.
