Joseph Lunness, well-known cattle man, is dead in Winnipeg. The announcement was received in Toronto yesterday with a great deal of regret. The late Mr. Lunness spent his boyhood days in York-ville some fifty years ago, where his father was a retail butcher. He became an exporter of cattle and sheep to England, handling large consignments.

For the past fifteen years he has been engaged in feeding distillery cattle in Walkerville, Ont., with the firm of Lunness, Rogers and Halligan. His business interests in Manitoba were also very extensive. extensive.
