

lic tea-gardens—The Queen in Coblenz—Princess Liegnitz—‘Uncle Herrmann’—The Grand Duchess Dowager of Mecklenburg —In Ems—Their Majesties—The Queen as a godmother—Baron Gerolt—Why he resigned—Mr. Bancroft—His meanness—In Ems with his Majesty—My cousin, the Duchess of Ossuna—Breakfast with their Majesties at Sayn—Military manœuvres—Visit to Anholt—Prince and Princess of Wied—A party at her Majesty’s —Grand Duchess of Baden and Princess William—A ball at her Majesty’s—I dance with the Grand Duke of Weimar—Breakfast at her Majesty’s—Dinner at Neuwied—Prince and Princess of Roumania—The Count of Flanders—Departure of the Queen—Christmas in Anholt—A battue—Bitter reflections . . . Page 80

CHAPTER IV.

New Year—The ‘little bills’—In a whirlpool—Our new Colonel, Count Waldersee—In Berlin—An evening party at her Majesty’s —The brother of Maximilian—Audience with their Royal Highnesses the Crown Prince and Crown Princess—Their great kindness —Grand Court day—I conquer China—Baroness Schleinitz—Grand Opera Ball—The whole Court present—Carnival in Coblenz—Balls—Fancy Ball at Mr. von C—’s—A Spanish Quadrille—Fancy Ball at General von Herwarth’s—A fishy Quadrille—Mayence —Prince of Holstein—Bonn—Professor Dr. Busch—1st of April—Studying in the Hospitals—Salm promoted—Sad forebodings—Return of the Queen to Coblenz—Season in Ems—The Duke of Ossuna—His Majesty the Emperor of Russia—Princess Rose Salm-Salm—An unpleasant occurrence—At Prince Solms-Braunfels—Thirteen at the table!—Our set in Ems—With his Majesty—The Duchess of Ossuna and her train—Prince Albrecht of Prussia—Brilliant misery—Again in Bonn—Rumours in Ems—Supper with the King—A Review in Ems—Dinner at her Majesty’s in Coblenz—A café dansante—Caught in a shower—Arrival in Ems—The King and Benedetti—sensation—Supper with his Majesty—How the King looked—I tell his Majesty that I shall go with the army—Concert at the Swiss House in Coblenz—How the King and Queen were received—War declared—Taking leave of his Majesty—Affecting scene—The King gives me his photograph—Panic in Ems—Return to Coblenz—The behaviour of the Germans—Leave-taking of the Queen—Approval of my resolution —In Bonn—I receive a certificate from Professor Dr. Busch—In the Aula—Professor Dr. Busch appointed Surgeon-General of 8th