

suitable breaks, and one trusty and skilful breakman to every two cars in said train.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That wherever the said Railway or any of its branches shall cross, or shall hereafter cross any rail road, highway, turnpike road, statute labour or private road for carriages of any description, within this Province, the said Company shall cause boards to be placed, well supported by posts or otherwise, and constantly maintained across each railway, highway, statute labour or private road, where it is crossed by the rail road upon the same level therewith, the said posts and boards to be of such height as shall be easily seen by travellers without obstructing the travel, and on each side of said boards the following inscription shall be printed in plain legible letters of at least the length of nine inches, "Rail Road crossings, look out for the Engine when the bell rings!" Provided always, that it shall be lawful, if the said Company shall deem it more conducive to the public safety, for the said Company, at their own expense, to carry such turnpike or highway, statute labour or private road, over or under such railway, by means of a bridge or archway, in lieu of crossing the same on the level, and shall have power to raise or lower such turnpike, statute labour or private road, so as the safe and convenient use thereof be not obstructed; and the said Company shall constantly maintain in good repair all bridges, with the abutments and embankments which they may construct for conducting the rail road over any turnpike, highway, statute labour or private road, over said rail road; and when the said railway shall approach any such turnpike, highway, statute labour or private road, so as to be inconvenient in the construction or building of said rail road, or in the discretion of the Directors of the said Company, dangerous to persons passing on such turnpike, highway, statute labour or private road, it shall be lawful for the said Company to alter and change the line or course of such turnpike, highway, statute labour or private road, so as to obviate any such inconvenience, difficulty or danger, doing as little injury to such turnpike, highway, statute labour or private road, as may be.

Boards with a printed caution to be put up at the crossing of roads.

Company may alter and turnpike any other road instead of crossing on a level.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the immediate government and management of the affairs of the said Company shall be vested in seven, nine or thirteen Directors, as the said Company may by bye law from time to time fix and determine, who shall be proprietors of at least forty shares each, and who shall be chosen by the shareholders of the said Company in the manner hereinafter provided, and shall hold their offices until others shall have been duly elected and qualified to take their places; that not less than three or five Directors, as the said Company shall by bye law from time to time fix and determine, shall constitute a Board for the transaction of business, of which the President shall always be one, except in case of sickness or necessary absence, in which case the Directors present may choose one of their number as Chairman in Company affairs to be managed by a Board of Directors.
