

ARTICLE III.

SEC. 1. Its officers shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, a committee composed of two representatives of each Club which is not already represented by an officer on the Executive Committee, the office-bearers and committee forming the Executive Committee. No two officers can be members of the same Club. They shall hold office until their successors be appointed.

SEC. 2. Any vacancy occurring in the Executive Committee may be filled at a regular meeting of the said Committee.

ARTICLE IV.

SEC. 1. The president shall preside at all meetings of the League and Executive, with the usual privileges of the office. He shall have a vote in the election of officers and the admission of new Clubs, and the casting vote in a tie. He shall call special meetings whenever he deems them necessary, or when