

MERCHANTS SALT WORKS.

SEAFORTH, November 11th, 1880.

GENTLEMEN :

After a delay of four months. caused by the caving in of our Well, we are happy to inform you that we have now again got into thorough working order, and are now prepared to fill all orders entrusted to us more promptly than ever before, and can

GUARANTEE AN ARTICLE SECOND TO NONE IN THE TRADE.

During the stoppage of our Works everything connected with the manufactory has undergone a thorough repair.

Should you be kind enough to favor us with your orders, we will pledge ourselves to give as

GOOD AN ARTICLE AND AS CHEAP

As any one else in the trade; and should at any time the prices decline, we will make a reduction on whatever Salt you may have on hand, so that our customers shall run no risk of loss.

Soliciting your orders,

We are, Yours respectfully,

THOMAS GOVENLOCK & SON.
