

al, Monday; July 26, 1852.

No. 2. No. 4. No. 1. No. 1.

- | | | | |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|--|
| 1. Hay Market. | 33. Pearl and Potash Inspection. | 41. Priest's Farm. | 49. Inasco's Hotel. |
| 2. American Presbyterian Chapel. | 34. College. | 42. Richmond Place. | 50. Orr's Hotel. |
| 3. Presbyterian Church. | 35. Grist and Saw Mill. | 43. Old Protestant Burial Ground. | 51. Library and Natural History Society. |
| 4. Recollet Church. | 36. Eagle Foundry. | 44. Molson's Brewery. | 52. Grey Nunnery. |
| 5. Baptist Chapel. | 37. Methodist Chapel. | 45. St. Mary Foundry. | 53. City Bank. |
| 6. Presbyterian Church. | 38. Nail and Card Factory. | 46. New Gaol. | 54. News Room. |
| 7. Custom House. | 39. Chabolliez Square. | 47. Spirit Distillery. | 55. People's Bank. |
| 8. St. Ann Market. | 40. St. Gabriel Farm. | 48. Exchange Coffee House. | 56. Post Office. |

NOTICES AND EXPLANATIONS.

by "N," the other figures relate to Public Buildings, Squares, &c., as stated at foot.
 in, a straight line drawn through the Map, will reach the white spaces indicating the Fires.
 somewhat resembling the ramparts of a fortification, indicates that the space within contained the whole population, therefore,
 if it exhibit the Fires.
 ide the uninjured portions of the City, and ide the double line the comparatively unoccupied parts of the City limits.

by "N," the other figures relate to Public Buildings, Squares, &c., as stated at foot.