Campbell—Bugg.

A prétty house-wedding occurred yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. Charles Bugg, 50 Grenville-street, when his daughter, Miss Emma Bugg, was married to Mr. James Brown Campbell. The ceremony was pérformed at 3 o'clock by Rev. G. R. Turk, pastor of Carlton-street Methodist Church. The bridesmaid was Miss Jeffries, and the best man Mr. Charles Campbell, brother of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell received many valuable wedding presents, and the good wishes of a large circle of friends. They will spend their honeymoon in England. Hats, Bonnets, Traveling Hats, Leghorns, and all others, suitable for any occasion or purpose—Recent productions from our own designers and trimmers.

In the morning, at St. Simon's, and Stessie Robinson, daughter of Mr. Charles, E. Robinson, was married to Mr. R. C. Windeyer, Jr.

About 50 guests were invited to the church, which was prettily decorated with white Illacs and calia Illies, the ceremony being performed by Rev. T. C. Street, Macklem. The bride, looking beautiful in a gown of white muslin, trimmed with real lace, white picture hat, and carrying a bouquet of sweat peas and Illy-0f-they valley, was escorted to the altar by her sister, was maid of honor, and the other bridesmalds, Miss Edna Cowper of Butfalor, Miss Perl Robinson, and little Miss Bessie Lipscomb, the latter in a Kate Greenaway costume, with a basket of flowers. The bridesmaids wore organdle, with picture hats and rosebud bouquets. The groom was aided by his brother, Mr. Walter Windeyer. The ushers were Mr. Laurie Boyd, and Mr. Harold Marriott.

The honeymoon will be spent at Niagara, where the groom, as a captain in the 36th Battalion, goes into camp, on June 6.

Laing—Whyte.

In the evening Session.

In the evening interesting and gratifying reports and addresses were read on the work of the college of the Disciples at St. Thomas. It was shown that 28 students that the was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the amblent air seeking the metric of the spread of the gospel, were delivered by E. E. Crawford, W. C. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. H. M. Parsons, D.D.

The bride looked particularly sweet and charming in a grey silk dress, with a yoke of white corded taffeta and a girdle of purple velvet, wearing a becoming purple hat. The groom's present to the bridesmald.

W. W. McQueen, M.D., of Milton, N.D., assisted the groom. Two pyramids of palms decorated the church and altar.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bridesy parents, West King-street, where an elaborate dinner was served by Mr. Burrell.

The repast was enjoyed amidst many toasts and good wishes.

Many costly and beautiful presents were received by the newly-married couple.
