

BUILDERS.
Choice building lot on Shaw-street, only $10 per foot; south of River; any frontage. Apply H. H. WILLIAMS, 10 Victoria-street.

DEWET GOT AWAY FROM HIS FORCES

Mitchener and Methuen Did Not Report to Lord Roberts That Any Prisoners Had Been Taken Before the Boers Retired.

Lain's Nek Tunnel Not Badly Damaged—8000 Boers Retreated Before Buller—Kruger Keeps Steam Up—Premier Schreiner Resigns—What About Both?

London, June 14.—(3.50 a.m.)—The Boers from Lord Roberts clearing up the situation at Pretoria and along the communication stands alone. Military observers, noting that no mention is made of prisoners, assume that Gen. Dewet got away with his forces, practically intact.

Lain's Nek Tunnel.
Gen. Buller ordered Kruger, Wednesday, passed through Charleton and encamped near Lain's Nek. The tunnel was not much damaged. Both ends were blown up but the engineers think that repairs can be effected in about four days. The advance troops of Gen. Buller saw the Boer rear guard four miles distant yesterday.

8000 Boers Withdrew.
It was estimated that 8000 Boers were withdrawing. The townspeople at Ermelo counted 15 guns. Three hundred Free State released from guarding Van Rensselaer's farm, have gone to join President Steyn's command in the eastern part of Orange River colony.

Farms Will Be Confiscated.
Gen. Buller has sent notice to the Free State that unless they surrender by June 15, their farms and other possessions will be confiscated.

Kruger Keeps Steam Up.
President Kruger, after a despatch from Lorenzo Marques, keeps a despatch with steam up attached to the car in which he concentrates the executive offices of the Government and he intends to leave Macadoodi soon and to establish the Transvaal capital at Nelspruit, in the mountains, a fine defensive region.

War News for the Week.
The state printing press is operating at Macadoodi, producing leaflets containing war news for distributing among the Boers. It is again reported at Lorenzo Marques that the British are advancing thru Swaziland. Lord Roberts, it appears, however, contemplated that order given to Sir Buller to land on the coast and to penetrate to the Transvaal thru the Swaziland.

Premier Schreiner Resigns.
Mr. Schreiner, the Cape Premier, and his colleagues, resigned last evening. Sir Alfred Milner accepting their resignation, Sir Alfred Milner on June 10 has been named by the War Office. They were 10,000, 20,000 and two missing.

Anti-War Meetings of Women.
A meeting of women who object to the war was held at Queen's Hall last evening. Mrs. Howard Courtney presided. The meeting was moved a resolution, and declaring that the war resulted from the "bad policy of the Government." This and other anti-war resolutions were adopted. The meeting closed with the singing of the national anthem.

Portuguese Again Scared.
London, June 14.—A despatch from Lisbon says: "The Portuguese Government is again reported as fearing that the Boers will enter Delagoa Bay territory, when forced to retreat from Lydenburg. The Portuguese have 1000 troops in East Africa, and would be powerless to prevent an incursion."

CANADIANS APPRECIATED.
Canadian Officer Says the Brigade Containing the Canadians Has Been Most Prominent.

Ottawa, June 13.—(Special.)—The Militia Department has received a letter from a Canadian officer at the front, speaking in the highest terms of the treatment which the Canadians have received. Many comments from Canada and from unknown sources in Great Britain had been showered upon the Canadian troops, and it was stated that the 10th Brigade, to which the Canadians belong, has been the most prominent of all the corps under Lord Roberts in all the engagements which have taken place. They had been able to render valuable services, and had received the highest appreciation of their high appreciation.

A MESSAGE FROM SIR ALFRED.
Says That Trooper Hiam is Convalescing—Private Brunton Promoted to Sergeant.

Ottawa, June 13.—(Special.)—Sir Alfred Milner received a cable from Sir Alfred Milner this afternoon, as follows:—Referring to my telegram of yesterday, No. 156, Trooper Hiam is convalescing, and is progressing satisfactorily toward convalescence. He is at Naauport, No. 1221, Pte. Brunton, died at R.C.R. (Special) to England June 8.

DEADLY ENTERIC FEVER.
Appears to Be Carrying Off More Canadians Than Are Boer Killed.

Windsor, Ont., June 13.—A letter written from Bloemfontein, May 10, was received this morning from Sgt. R. B. Bowden. He is in the first part of the letter in writing that at Bowden's dictation, but he was written in his friend's language. Bowden was in the front and conveyed to Bloemfontein. He says a peculiar thing about the fever is that it is not contagious. A soldier from apparently fully recovered, and was dead in a few hours. Very few victims are generally given, a long rest before going back to hard service.

Trooper Mullen Dead.
London, June 13.—Trooper Mullen of the Canadian Mounted Rifles, who was killed as announced yesterday, has since died from enteric fever.

DEATH ENDED HIS SERVICE.
William J. Thompson of Toronto Junction Dies in Kingston Penitentiary.

Warden Pennington of Kingston Penitentiary wired to Inspector King yesterday afternoon for information concerning the whereabouts of the relatives of William J. Thompson, a prisoner who died in that institution yesterday. Thompson was serving a 12-year sentence for robbing a horse and buggy from a farmer near Brantford, and a trial which took place about four years ago before Judge McLaughlin. He was sentenced to life imprisonment from the fact that the prisoner, at the time the horse and buggy were stolen, was 33 years of age, and was married on the day he was sent to Kingston Penitentiary. His widow, who lives in Willoughby-street, Toronto, would like to see the remains be handed over to her for burial.

JULY STOLE THE $10,000.
That is the Decision Reached by the Montreal Jury re the Joliette Robbery.

Montreal, June 13.—(Special.)—This afternoon the jury, which had been trying Evan-geleiste Jury, charged with robbing the C.P.R. depot at Joliette, found the accused guilty, after being out for four minutes. Sentence will be pronounced a few days later.

ROBERTS' FORCES HAD HARD FIGHTING SINCE LAST REPORT

It Became Necessary to Attack Both, who Was Growing in Strength—Canadians Were in the Engagements—Line of Communication is Clear Again.

London, June 13.—After a week's silence Lord Roberts has been heard from, his line of communication having been practically restored by means of a complete victory gained by Generals Methuen and Kitchener over General Dewet, at the Rhenoster River yesterday, June 12. The Boer camp was captured and the burghers were scattered in all directions.

Scott Kitchener in Haste.
Lord Roberts on being notified of the cutting of his line of communication sent General Kitchener in all haste to join Gen. Methuen. June 11 Lord Roberts attacked Gen. Botha, who was in strong force 15 miles southeast of Pretoria. After strenuous opposition, the British forces gained considerable ground, but Gen. Botha, when Lord Roberts left the field, was still undefeated.

No Need for Anxiety.
All is quiet at Pretoria and Johannesburg, and Lord Roberts says the Government need have no apprehension about the security of the army in South Africa, as it will not take long to remedy the reverse and repair the railroad.

What Lord Roberts Says.
A lengthy despatch forwarded to the War Office by Major-General Buller from Kromme River, presumably sent there by messenger, reads as follows:

"Kroonstad, June 12.—We have been requested to forward you from Lord Roberts the following despatch from the Pretoria presidency at 8.08 a.m. to-day:

"Pretoria, June 12.—Pretoria and Johannesburg perfectly quiet and several of the inhabitants have expressed gratitude for the peace and order which prevail. Necessary to Attack Botha.

"After surrendering the city, Botha retreated to a place about 15 miles east of Middleburg-road. He had a small force at first, but during the last few days his numbers increased, and his being so near the town kept up the excitement in the country, prevented the burghers from laying down their arms, and interfered with the collection of supplies. It therefore became necessary to attack him.

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

Attack Begun Monday.
"This I did yesterday. He held a very strong position, practically unassailable in front, which enabled him to place the main portion of his troops on his flanks, which he knew from former experience were his vulnerable parts. I sent French with the 10th Cavalry Brigade and the 10th Mounted Infantry round to his left and Ian Hamilton with Broadwood and

SPECULATION STILL GOES ON OVER BRITISH COLUMBIA FIGHT

J.C. Brown Stands a Chance of Being Called as Premier—Marten is in No Way Disquieted and Says He Will Not Retire From Politics Yet a While.

Vancouver, B.C., June 13.—(Special.)—Enquiry shows there is absolutely no truth in the rumor that Hon. J. C. Brown has resigned the portfolio of finance. It was an Opposition card. It is reported to-day, however, on the authority of Mr. Yates that Mr. Brown stands an excellent chance of being offered the Premiership, on the ground that as the election went against Marten on entirely personal questions, no member of his Cabinet or supporter is debarred from accepting an offer to form a Cabinet. Mr. Brown is accordingly the strongest man in the new House after Marten, and could get plenty of support if he would consent to throw overboard and strike out for himself. Both Marten and Brown are now in Victoria.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

Marten Not Disquieted.
Mr. Marten said last night here that he was in no way disquieted at the prospect before him. He accepts defeat philosophically, and said he had done his best for the people. If they didn't want him, all right; let them get somebody else they like better. He said that he was not inclined to retire from active political life just yet a while.

MR. MONK'S CHARGES

Premier's Tone Changed, and He Now Stands on Rules to Burk, if Possible, an Investigation, Which the Public Demand.

Ottawa, June 13.—(Special.)—The "emergency ration" formed the bill of fare of the House for an hour this afternoon. Mr. Monk, following upon his notice of privilege and answered on a question given yesterday, stated his case and move for an enquiry. But the House was started to have the Prime Minister stand on the rules of the House, and claim that he had not been notified of Mr. Monk's intentions.

Trying to Refresh Sir Wilfrid.
Several minutes were spent in refreshing the memory of Mr. Monk as having said yesterday that he would make his charges "in a few hours," and Mr. Foster as having stated that to-day would be the latest for Mr. Monk to make good his promise. Mr. Foster, addressing himself to Sir Wilfrid, said he had raised over the matter with the Premier, and had told him the charge would be made to-day.

Does He Mean to Stifle It?
Sir Wilfrid acknowledged all these things. Still he held that Mr. Monk could give notice to-day and move his motion to-morrow. The peculiar action of the Premier is feared to prevent a sitting of an enquiry at the last moment. The weakness of the Government's defence is manifest, and he is loath to furnish constructive material for an election campaign. It is certain that he made to-day no announcement concerning a committee similar to the one made yesterday.

What is the Game?
The parrying of the Premier to-day indicates there is some game in the wind. Mr. Monk, in giving his notice, made his charges in a way which is likely to be new and throw new light on the case. The old charges recant the fact that in

Wanted to Sell "Protos."
When the first contingent of Canadian troops was prepared to depart for South Africa, Mr. Hatch asked Dr. Borden to buy a supply of the emergency ration test at Kingston. But Dr. Borden had replied that all supplies were to be furnished by the War Office of England.

The Newer Charges.
Then follow the newer charges: 6. That the Minister of Militia had several interviews, principally at Montreal, and also elsewhere, with the said Henri Hatch, who he knew to be sole manufacturer of the food tested at Kingston. 7. That nevertheless by a tender made on the 4th day of Jan. last and accepted on the same day, an agreement was arrived at the one can limit the spending.

Continued on Page 4.

MANITOBA LANDS
To exchange for well-situated, productive city property.
A. E. OSLER & CO.,
35 Adelaide-street East.

ONE CENT

SR WILFRID WICES AT MR. MONK'S CHARGES

Premier's Tone Changed, and He Now Stands on Rules to Burk, if Possible, an Investigation, Which the Public Demand.

Ottawa, June 13.—(Special.)—The "emergency ration" formed the bill of fare of the House for an hour this afternoon.

Trying to Refresh Sir Wilfrid.
Several minutes were spent in refreshing the memory of Mr. Monk as having said yesterday that he would make his charges "in a few hours," and Mr. Foster as having stated that to-day would be the latest for Mr. Monk to make good his promise.

Does He Mean to Stifle It?
Sir Wilfrid acknowledged all these things. Still he held that Mr. Monk could give notice to-day and move his motion to-morrow.

Wanted to Sell "Protos."
When the first contingent of Canadian troops was prepared to depart for South Africa, Mr. Hatch asked Dr. Borden to buy a supply of the emergency ration test at Kingston.

The Newer Charges.
Then follow the newer charges: 6. That the Minister of Militia had several interviews, principally at Montreal, and also elsewhere, with the said Henri Hatch, who he knew to be sole manufacturer of the food tested at Kingston.

Continued on Page 4.

LA PATRIE IS AFTER PACAUD

Blames Editor of the Laurier Organ for Reproducing Telegrams From France

Montreal, June 13.—(Special.)—La Patrie has started out to rail on the editor of the Quebec journalist if he continues his present opposition to the matter of the administration. La Patrie blames Le Soleil for reproducing the telegram about Mr. Tarte in France. "How could the Minister of Public Instruction, Mr. Ernest Parent, be so stupid as to allow the Quebec journal to be so stupid as to reproduce the telegram about Mr. Tarte in France?"

Blames Editor of the Laurier Organ for Reproducing Telegrams From France

Blames Editor of the Laurier Organ for Reproducing Telegrams From France

Blames Editor of the Laurier Organ for Reproducing Telegrams From France

Blames Editor of the Laurier Organ for Reproducing Telegrams From France</