A $7,000 Residence for $5,000

I sold one of the houses on Jameson Avenue recently advertised in The World. The best bargain is still on the market, but the house is occupied at present, Possession can be given by Sept, 1st.

A solid Brick House-ten roomsfive on the ground floor-with an attic which would make two or three fine large rooms. The House is admirably adapted and located for a physician, and is specially fitted up and laid out for a professional man. Fine wide verandahs, all modern conveniences, new plumbing, good hot air furnace, spacious rooms, with wide, deep lot, matured shrubbery and shade trees. The house faces Leopold Avenue, and is a superb location in every way. The lot and house to buy and build to-day would cost $7,000. The character of the street can be judged when it is known that there is not a house on the street which could be bought for less than $5,000, and many are valued at from $10,000 to $20,000.

I WILL SELL ON BASY TERMS OF PAYMENT. ALFRED WOOD, The Free Press, Ottawa.
