"QUEEN ZEPHRA" COMING

TO GRAND FRI., SAT.

Vaudeville.

In Jack Pickford's latest picture, "Burglar By Proxy," which will be shown at the Grand today for the last time, the popular young star plays the role of Jack Robin, member of a fashionable society family, who is attacked by the well known society allments, spring fever, love, a flat tire on his high powered roadster, and a terrible toothache at the same time. Jack's excitement starts when friends influence him to try to drown his toothache with a high-ball. He saturates that painful ivory and unconsciously swallows some of the fluid. With his head in a whirl, he reels homeward to be met by two footpads who insist that he climb into the home of his sweet-

Dorothy Mason, whom Jack wants to marry, is given the shock of her life when she sees him come creeping into her boudoir. She surprises Jack with the information that this is not his first attempt at burglary, because he stole her father's business plans. This gives Jack a great shock. He determines to recover the plans even if he has to steal them.

The acting was very good, the overture and intermission numbers played by the orchestra delighted all, and the scenery effects were excellent. This is the third playlet which the All Saints' Dramatic Club has presented this season. Those taking part in the play were: H. Slade, H. S. Hill, C. Young, C. Parson, F. Mayston, Miss L. Docksey, Miss R. Hill, Miss A. Chambers, Miss B. Mills and Miss A. Dibsdale.

The door opened, and a beautiful vision of loveliness greeted his eyes.
