BIG METRO PROGRAM

Releases Will Be First Shown at the Regent Theatre All Season.

A. H. Sawyer, president and general manager of the Standard Film Service, Limited, has been in Toronto the past few days, with W. B. Lubin, assistant general manager, and has given out general plans for the releases to be made by Metro Pictures Corporation of New York, and also the special productions to be released by the Standard Film Service, Limited.

The Metro program has been selected by the management of the new Regent Theatre as one of the two programs to be presented at the beautiful picture palace for the coming season. The first Metro to be shown at the Regent will be Lionel Barrymore's latest and best picture, "The Divorcee." This picture will be shown at the Regent Wednesday-Thursday, Aug. 30 and 31. The Metro days at the Regent will be Wednesday-Thursday each week.

The biggest feature of the Metro program for the next three months will, of course, be the wonderful production of "Romeo and Juliet," in which Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne are featured. This production at the present time is practically finished, and 46,000 feet of film has been made, which will be cut to seven or eight reels.

At the present time Mr. Bushman and Miss Bayne are working on the first episode of a 14 serial entitled "The Chain of Evil." The first serial to be issued by the Standard Film Service, Limited, is "The Crimson Stain Mystery," which is now ready to be marketed, and in connection with which a gigantic advertising campaign will be launched. This serial features the return to the screen of Maurice Costello.

Following "Dorian's Divorce" the following Metro photoplays will be released at the Regent Theatre: "The Purple Lady," featuring Irene Hawley; "The Flower of No Man's Land," featuring Viola Dana; and "The Eternal Question," featuring Irene Hawley.

The directors of Metro Pictures Corporation have arranged to increase the program with more one-reel comedies, three of which will be released weekly beginning this fall. The stars appearing in these comedies include Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew, Mr. Fegum, Lolla Robertson and Ralph Herz. Then, too, Metro is securing the world for important and picture-reel leaders for the Metro Travologues, which form an interesting weekly release on the Metro program. The comedies and travologues will shortly be released in Canada.

"HARRY HASTINGS' BIG SHOW"

Harry Hastings' Big Show, which comes to the Clavety next week, is one of those delightful creations that have all the requirements of a burlesque review of the higher order.

Mr. Dan Coleman, the star, is one of America's greatest Irish comedians, and he has surrounded himself with a cast that is first class in every manner, being such well-known players as Phil Peters, Alma Bauer, Elsie Meadows, Eddie Morris, Ethel Lytle, "Petronella" and others, with a large chorus of pretty girls who can sing and dance.

"ON TRIAL" NEXT WEEK.

"On Trial," Cohan and Harris' biggest success, which thrilled and entertained New Yorkers for two years at the Candler Theatre, is the special exhibition attraction booked for the Alexandra Theatre, commencing next Monday matinee (Wednesday) September 4. "On Trial" is a melodrama of absorbing interest, gripping and thrilling, while its novel form adds to the appeal. As the title indicates the action of the play revolves around a man on trial for murder. Seats will be placed on sale tomorrow at 9 o'clock sharp.

"BIRTH OF A NATION."

"The Birth of a Nation," D. W. Griffith's massive spectacle at Massey Hall, is the largest and most important production of a decade, yet not a word is spoken through the performance of nearly three hours. Music supports what is lacking thru the absence of speech and mechanical effects, whilst the wizard of the screen, David W. Griffith, unfolds 13,000 feet of film, the thrilling romance of the war between the States and the reconstruction of the southland. Some idea of its magnitude may be had from the facts that 18,000 actors and 3,000 horses took part, and that the staging of this great "outdoor" drama cost half a million dollars.

Several of the actors are of southern lineage. Henry Walthall, who plays the heroic role of the little confederate colonel, is a member of the well-known Walthall family of Alabama.

"THE BOHEMIAN GIRL."

The Aborn Opera Company, in their spectacular staging of "The Bohemian Girl," will appear at the Grand Opera House next week, opening with a special holiday matinee Monday and Tuesday.

No opera has appeared more strongly to lovers of pure melody than this masterpiece of Balfe's, with its delightful ballads, "The Heart Bowed Down," "Then You'll Remember Me," "I Dream of a Land in Marble Halls," "The Fair Land of Poland," "Bliss Forever Past," and other gems.

Altogether, the Aborn Opera Company in "The Bohemian Girl" utilizes the services of seventy singers and musicians, most prominent among whom are Albert Parr, Jeanette Wells, Phyllis Davies, Albert Wallstedt, Francis J. Tyler, Baby Phillips, Ralph Nicholls and Carl Burton.

GLOBE.

For the first three days of this week the Globe has secured the beautiful Kentucky star of the movies, Virginia Pearson, who will be seen by the patrons of the Globe for the first time in the much-talked-of drama of a woman's love, "Blazing Love."

THE REGENT THEATRE.

A complete change of bill will be shown at The Regent, Toronto's wonderful picture playhouse, today and tomorrow in five gripping acts, will be the feature, Lionel Barrymore, one of the most finished actors on either the stage or screen, and Grace Valentine, the charming and gifted dramatic artist, are starred in this production, which was produced for the Metro program by the Rolfe Photoplay, Inc. The musical program will also be entirely new, with a harp solo given by Signor Joseph Quintile, the famous soloist.

THE STAR NEXT WEEK.

Burlesque in its most approved form will be presented at the Star Theatre next week when the new "Tourists" company will appear in two one-act satires, and a long program of vaudeville specialties. Lively comedy, snapping musical features, and all sorts of dancing, will be contributed by a company that embraces several of the most prominent and talented performers in burlesque, among them Gus Fay, a popular comedian; Ernest Schneider, Lilla Brennan, Kitty Mitchell, Hilda Giles, William Lemuel, Anna Heidell and Vivian Cabell, while in the vaudeville bill are: La Petite Vivian, the perfect woman; Eddie Fox, the Web-ster Sisters, and others. There is a large chorus of girls, whose work is said to be one of the chief features of the show.

FEDERATION OF THE EMPIRE

1200 PERFORMERS

10 MASSES BANDS---60 TRAINED VOICES

A Masterpiece of Pageantry and Stagecraft

Greatest Ever

Most remarkable feature in making it all wonderful.

This year the performance in front of the grand stand eclipses any spectacle ever before undertaken by the management of the Canadian National Exhibition.

The World.

"Patriotism Making"

The crowds on the grand stand last night were as one in voting this great event the most beautiful and appropriate patriotism-making pageant ever produced. It was gorgeous and exceptionally well presented.

The News.

"Profoundly Impressive Appeal"

In years past the Canadian National Exhibition has presented a brilliant night spectacle. This year it makes a profoundly impressive appeal. It portrays an Imperial recession. "The Federation of Empire"—so-called—with which each evening the Fair is brought to a close, thrilled a mammoth audience. It is a prophetic allegory, a post-bellum dream symbolizing British unity of purpose and endeavor the world round.

Thither the sons and daughters gather from all the patches of red that dot the map. They meet not to reconstruct the Empire, but to perpetuate its solidarity as a vast brotherhood, freedom-loving, free-governing, free men.—The Globe.

"Magnificent"

The military spectacle that brought the show before the grand stand at the Exhibition to a close was one of the most magnificent ever seen at a National Exposition.—Telegram.

Never Before Equaled

Exhibition visitors have been accustomed to witnessing massive spectacles before the grand stand at the evening performances, they have come to the Fair from year to year expecting something big, something out of the ordinary, something more grand and more stirring than anything they could see elsewhere—and they have not been disappointed. They have looked for surprises and have found them, but never before in the thirty-seven Exhibitions that have been staged have they ever witnessed any display with so profound an impression as that which they witnessed last night.—The World.

WEST TORONTO BATTALION OBTAINS MORE RECRUITS

Street Corner Meetings and Personal Canvassing Result in Another Successful Week.

The 234th (West Toronto) Battalion, under Lieut.-Col. Wallace, has closed another successful recruiting week making the same net gain as in the previous week. Street corner meetings with the aid of the bugle band and street canvassing are responsible for the increase in recruits. The 234th is losing two popular officers this week in Lieuts. K. B. Conn and H. G. Brooke, who are proceeding overseas with the next draft of officers. The men of the battalion are holding a concert in the recreation room on Friday evening, Sept. 1st, at 8 o'clock, to which all their friends are invited. The program will be augmented by an orchestra and the battalion brass and bugle bands, and a large attendance is expected.

The harvest being nearly over, the recruiting figures for the county will now take an upward jump. The 234th "Post" Battalion will immediately show a great improvement in numbers. The good impression made in their march thru the county in July, will now that the men are free, bring the desired result. The 234th men from the county who have been quartered at Ravina Barracks, are in excellent condition and have nothing but praise for the officers, the barracks, and the treatment they have received. Lieut. Cliff, who has been stationed in Brampton, is leaving shortly for the front with the next draft of officers, and his place will be taken by Lieut. Glyn Price, who is at present taking a special course at Camp Sorden.

GREAT EAST END PARK.

Second only to the Exhibition as a popular place of resort is Scarborough Beach Park, the great recreation ground, which beautifies the east end of the city as the Exhibition beautifies the west end. It has always been thronged with Exhibition visitors, and this year is proving no exception to the rule. The feature of the performance this week is the Russian juvenile band, a remarkable organization which needs no introduction to Toronto music lovers. Richards, Brady and Martin give a clever comedy cyclorama, which needs no introduction to be a great attraction. The admirable restaurant on the grounds is being well patronized.
