

Presbyterian Ladies' College,

Location on Bloor Street, opposite the Queen's Park,

TORONTO.

This institution, participating in the educational facilities afforded by the City of Toronto, has met with unparalleled success.

New Term Begins September 6th, 1893.

Literary department under the charge of specialists.

Science, embracing an extensive and thorough course, under the charge of the REV. JOHN STENHOUSE, M.A., B.Sc., Edinburgh.

Music in connection with the Conservatory of Music, Mr. EDWARD FISHER, Director.

Art. Students have special advantages in Art under the able and efficient teaching of T. MOWER MARTIN, R.C.A., Director.

Elocution Department thoroughly equipped.

The Home and Social Life receives careful supervision.

Classes for Matriculation and First Year University Work.

Early application necessary. Vacancies limited. Calendars and Forms on Application.

T. M. MACINTYRE, M.A., LL.B., Ph.D.

John Kay, Son & Co.,

Wholesale and Retail.

Carpets, Oilcloths, Linoleums,

Curtains, Draperies, Etc.

34 King Street West,

Toronto.

Ou

If you a

Our Stock
us perso
in A

W. c

