20th Century Brand Overcoats

are of the latter class—they are the pride of the trade. No other ready-to-wear clothing equals 20th Century Brand—and this is the reason we sell it. Our trade calls for the finest clothing made.

No one can buy a better Overcoat—or Suit—unless he gets an expensive custom-made one.

See our window, or, better still, come in and let us show you the actual goods. We have no doubt of the outcome.

Crawford and Howard Turn State's Evidence in Dress Suit Case Trial—Crawford Swears McLeod Disemboweled Susan Geary's Body.

Boston, Nov. 27.—(Special)—Judge Stevens and a jury started, this morning, upon the formal judicial inquiry into the death of Susan Agnes Geary, the victim of the so-called "dress suit case mystery." For the purpose of placing the responsibility thereon, and made such rapid progress in the investigation that, before the day's work ended, a jury had been impaneled, two of the three defendants at the bar, Louis W. Crawford and William E. Hunt, alias Howard, had pleaded guilty to being accessories after the fact, and Dr. Percy D. McLeod, formerly of Kings county (N. B.), was the sole defendant at the bar.

Dr. McLeod is also charged with being an accessory, the principal in the case, according to the indictment, being Mary S. Dean, alias Dana, alias Gifford, who has not yet been apprehended. Dr. McLeod is represented by Valere Jones & Mansfield who defended Charles L. Tucker at his murder trial.

Dr. McLeod, being out on bail, had a seat outside the bar enclosure, and near him sat his wife, who came into court with him. Before adjournment was taken for the day, twenty-five witnesses had been examined. Among these were Crawford, one of the defendants, who said that Dr. McLeod not only suggested dismemberment but delivered to him at 88 Winchester street, where the girl died, the suit cases containing her dismembered body.

Mrs. Geary, mother of the dead girl, and two of her daughters, Fawcett, Berkman, Rubin and Kaufman, who were parties to the sale of the suit cases, Nathan, the dead girl's lover; Timothy J. Howard, the cabman who drove Crawford

FATAL ACCIDENT

Halifax, Dec. 27.—(Special)—A sad accident occurred at the works of the Nova Scotia Steel Company, at New Glasgow, this morning, by which Daniel McBae lost his life. He was employed making repairs to a iron barge at the wharf and was kneeling down under it when by some accident a train of buggies were started down the track towards the one upon which he was working. McBae did not notice them approach and his head was caught between colliding buggies and he was instantly killed. He was about fifty years old, highly respected and leaves a wife and small children.

"I will say that two prominent physicians of our city declared that unless I underwent an operation, and that very soon, I was in danger of death. I saw your ad. in a newspaper and at once sent for a sample which I received very promptly. I want to tell you that it was the first thing that eased the terrible pain and itching and allowed me to have a night's rest for seven long weeks. My husband immediately went to our druggist, Mr. Hemlock, and procured a 50 cent box. I am now cured and will always recommend you highly to everyone. You actually saved my life. My mind, too, was almost broken by the pain. Yours gratefully, Mrs. Rose H. Stouffer, 1003 16th St., Moline, Ill."

The Pyramid Pile Cure quickly and easily cures the worst cases of piles, hemorrhoids, and all other ailments of the rectum, and restores all sufferers to health and comfort.

Beware of the surgeon's knife. Its results are horrible, often wrecking life and resulting in hemorrhage and death.
