LATE LOCALS

The tug Admiral will be ready for the river on Wednesday or Thursday next. DIDDA, the mysterious, mystifying creation of a woman out of nothing. All the Salvation Army corps of the city will unite for a grand rally tonight at Fairville. Steamer St. Croix landed 101 passengers Saturday night from Boston and sailed on her return trip this morning. British steamship Roda, Captain Bennett, arrived in port this morning from Baltimore in ballast to load coal. Schooner Edna V. Pickes, Captain Berry, arrived Saturday from Apalachicola with a cargo of pitch pine lumber for Joseph A. Likely. Arrangements are about completed for the C. M. B. A. outing at 'Waters' land' on Wednesday next. The committee will meet tonight. Rev. E. S. Parker, A. B., missionary evangelist for the Baptist convention, in New Brunswick, preached at both services in the Baptist church in Carleton yesterday. John Deiley, Antigonish; Richard Millett, Portland; Frank Nuttall, Boston; Thomas Richardson, Philadelphia, and Jas. Thorny, New York, are at the New Victoria Hotel. Members of No. 1 Co., 3rd Regiment of Artillery who attended Potemova Camp can obtain their camp pay by calling at the office of Capt. W. H. Harrison, Canada Life Building, Prince William street. C. Archibald Wilson, who has been enjoying an outing at J. Harry Durick's lake, near St. Martins, had great luck last week, when he captured a trout weighing six and a half pounds. The next meeting of the joint committee having in charge the arrangements for the meeting of the Grand Lodge will be held tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at the Lodge Hall at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested. Don't have your eyes tested in a hurry unless you want the wrong glasses. The idea of testing sight in a few minutes is ridiculous. D. Boyaner, optician, 38 Dock street, takes plenty of time and makes the glasses right. The case against Clifford Ellis, charged with wilfully breaking a pane of colored glass in the White House lunch wagon on Aug. 3, has been postponed till Friday morning, at 8.30 o'clock, in order to secure a witness. The Quabbin Sulphite Pulp Mill will be sold by auction at Chubb's Corner, St. John, N. B., on Saturday, the 1st day of September, at 12 o'clock, noon, under a decree of the Supreme Court in Equity. For further particulars see advertisement. On Saturday afternoon next, Aug. 18th, MacLachlan Lodge, Sons of England, intend holding a basket picnic in Rockwood Park, the occasion being their 12th anniversary. Should the day be unfavorable it will be held on the Saturday following. "Under Southern Skies," by Lottie Blair Parker, author of "Way Down East," will shortly be presented in this city, with an important company and all the minutest details that made the record run at the Belasco Theatre in New York City a notable one. The delegation of firemen who went to Charlottetown are requested to meet at the Hook and Ladder station, King street east, on Tuesday evening at 7.30 p. m. Business of importance. By order of John Bond, chairman of delegation. Every member is requested to be present. Mrs. George T. Law, of New York, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McKinley, St. Patrick's street. On Friday last a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Law, on the anniversary of his father's birth. Thus father and son will celebrate the same birthday. There have been no important developments in the express strike during the past few days. Some concessions have been made by the express company in the matter of pay, but the telegraphers' committee are standing out for the reinstatement of William Simpson, agent at Petitoque.

IN CENTENARY

Sermon Preached by Rev. Geo. R. Baker of Leominster, Mass.

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved," was the theme of an eloquent sermon delivered in Centenary Methodist church last evening by Rev. George R. Baker, pastor of the First Baptist church of Leominster, Mass. Rev. Mr. Baker referred to the necessity of believing and pointed out the evidence that the Bible offered that Christ was the son of God, the saviour of mankind. He said, he said, was the keystone, the drawbar, the coupling-pin between Christ and man. He spoke of the birth, life, death and resurrection of the Saviour; of the doubting Thomas, and said it was a good thing there was a sceptic then. Thomas was not satisfied until he had touched the Lord's wounds. There were doubters still. "If we don't believe He is the Son of God, we won't follow Him. We won't believe, says that He is entitled to give commands. If we don't believe we are living below the level. "Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will come after. We say God is merciful. How do we know it? There is no proof except Christ. He was crucified for us. Believe in Christ." During the service Miss Zephie V. Woodworth, gospel singer of Aylesford, N. S., rendered a solo which was greatly enjoyed.

POLICE COURT

Four of a kind faced the magistrate at this morning's session of the police court, and each received his reward. James Moore, charged with drunkenness, pleaded guilty, and was fined $8 or two months. His honor reminded the prisoner that he had been idle for five months, during which time his wife worked and supported the family. Moore said he had been ill at his home for two months, and his honor lectured him severely for getting drunk when he got out. Mrs. Moore appeared in court, and an arrangement was made with the magistrate on which he was allowed out on suspended sentence. Robert Burns and Alfred Skood, a Swede, were fined $8 or 30 days each for drunkenness. John Johnson, a native of Scotland, was arrested in the west end on a charge of drunkenness. Johnson belongs to one of the Battle line steamers and was found reposing under the fountain on Union street. He had sustained a severe cut in the face falling from a fence on which he had been sitting. He was fined $8 or 30 days. The case against Harry Alexander, Wm. Golding and Andrew Stock, for fighting together at the corner of Clarence and St. David's streets, on Aug. 10, came up in the police court this morning, but Alexander was the only one of the trio who appeared. He pleaded guilty, adding that he had not been notified, but on learning that he was wanted, he came to court of his own accord. His honor informed the young man that he was liable to a fine of $20 or two months in jail, and asked him if he had the money. "I have not got 20 cents," said Alexander. "You should have thought of that before you fought," said the judge. The case stands for further hearing. Meantime Alexander was remanded.

TONIGHT'S SKATING RACE

The chief topic of conversation among the chief of rollers skating is the race between Follis and Merritt at the St. Andrew's rink this evening. The race is for twenty-five dollars a side, and as both men have been training hard an exciting race may be looked for. Both Follis and Merritt have stated against each other before both ice and rollers, but Alexander has the advantage on rollers and the latter on ice. Of course this was some years ago, and both have improved greatly since then, but the old rivalry still remains. Merritt's local admirers have not seen him skate for some time and are naturally anxious to see just how fast he is. Follis has many admirers and they are predicting that he will defeat Merritt. One thing is sure, someone will win. Another race that is causing considerable talk is the Dean and Bridges race. Dean has proved himself to be a fast skater. Bridges is a very fast amateur from Boston, where he has won a number of races at the Park Square rink. Both men have been training daily and a close and exciting race may be looked for. Local races will take place after the 10th hour. The 12nd band will furnish music. No extra charge for admission.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Matthews, widow of Rev. W. C. Matthews, of St. John, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Faulkner, Sackville. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wetmore, of Boxford, are visiting Wetmore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Wetmore, here. J. W. Montgomery is going to England on a trip and will sail this week on the Algonquin. Baron Henglimiller, German ambassador at Washington, and Count Taneyevillars were the city Saturday on their way to Boston, after a fishing trip in the province of Quebec. Mrs. Sarah Jeanette Cotes, the talented Canadian authoress, with her husband, Everard Cotes, and Mrs. Watercootes, of Bransford, spent Sunday in the city. They were guests at the Buffers, and went across the bay this morning in the Prince Rupert.

MOLASSES CARGOES

The Meteghan, N. S., brigantine James Daly, Captain Comeau, arrived this morning from Arroyo, Porto Rico, with 314 puncheons, 14 tierces and 22 barrels molasses for The Crosby Molasses Company. The brig was 18 days on the passage, which the captain says was a fine one. The Lunenburg brigantine Sceptre, Captain Burke, arrived in port this morning with 290 puncheons and 88 barrels molasses from Fajardo, Porto Rico.

TONIGHT AT THE VIC.

The old "Vic" will be opened this evening and hundreds will be present to try a spin on the rollers. The stakes are up-to-date, and as many invitations have been issued, a banner night is anticipated. Manager Armstrong has left no stone unturned in his efforts to make the sport a success at the Victoria rink, and a band will be in attendance this evening. The fact that the blueberry picnic was going to Welsford on the 18th was so well known the committee in charge placed an ad in this paper without naming the place; it caused no comment, everybody knows that the place for blueberries is Welsford, better known as Blueberry Centre. See ad. for further particulars.
