nd, by advice erests.

as shewn by the previous after paying g purposes, of

nd, see State-

dvance on the able; and that creased cost of rements of the ae proposition. members, ten sixpence; and instead of five ther. It may pear comparaderable impor-

ties connected the Institute, ing, have now an officer who n, and manage control of the nerous disposititute. When ir aid required, preciation of an and support. twelve months steady growth of former years, affords a pleasing indication of a bright and promising future for our Institute.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

PATRICK FREELAND,

President.

ROBERT EDWARDS,

Secretary.

Toronto, 7th May, 1855.