

granted to a brother to do so after the Conference or Conference Committee shall have decided that circumstances have arisen of sufficient importance to warrant its possibility.

15.—That the best thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to the Rev. G. S. Milligan, LL.D., for the efficient and faithful discharge of his official duties as President of the Newfoundland Conference for the past year.

16.—That the cordial and hearty thanks of this Conference are due and are hereby presented to the Rev. George J. Bond, B.A., for the faithful and efficient discharge of his duty as Secretary of this Conference.

17.—That the thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to the Sub-Secretaries for the faithful discharge of their duties during the year.

18.—That the Superintendent of a Circuit or Mission be responsible for the supply of his pulpit two Sabbaths after the close of the Conference.

19.—That the respectful thanks of this Conference be presented to Brother Peach for the interest he has taken in the Financial work of this Conference.

20.—We are gratified to learn that the affairs of the Book Room are in as satisfactory a condition as reported, and feel called upon to express our continued confidence in our Book Steward and Editor, and pledge ourselves to do all in our power to aid in the circulation of our Church Organ and literature.