Ladies' Stylish Coats and Costumes FOR SPRING At Reduced Prices

We have decided to mark the prices of all Spring Coats and Costumes down to a figure that is bound to clear them quickly. There is a tempting choice in colors and styles. Some of the Coats show elaborate trimming, and some are trimmed very little. The same may be said of the Costumes, but there is an air of elegance about them, all that will appeal to all good dressers.

CLEANLINESS IN DENTISTRY

If people knew the thoughtful risk they run of infection from unclean dentistry they would better realize the awful chances they take and what a mighty important factor cleanliness is. No one has ever disputed the fact that there are no cleaner offices in Canada than ours. This is worthy of consideration.

LOCAL NEWS

A key found in King street awaits an owner at central police station. As repairs to the building are not yet completed, there will be no meeting in the Every Day Club tomorrow evening. Frank Hughes, the St. Mary's ball player, has signed to play with the Woodstock team in the new semi-professional league. Registrar Jones reports nineteen marriages during the present week, also thirty-five births—twenty-one girls and fourteen boys. There will be a meeting of the L. I. & D. Society at 8 o'clock tonight in a well-rooms, Union street, to arrange for attendance at the funeral of James Dillon.

Policeman Nelson has reported that a retaining wall has fallen across the sidewalk in Prince William street, and the wreck will have to be cleared away. Steamships Touching, Brunswick, and Louisiana are all about loaded with deals and they will probably sail for Brown Head this evening.

Rev. E. S. Murdoch, of Renous Bridge, N. B., is to hold a new church at Millidgeville, Northumberland county, which is a small mission.

The United States wrecking steamer Tasco left New London, Conn. for this port last Thursday. It is stated she will make an effort to raise the tug Pejepopot, ashore at Cape Spencer.

Frank H. Olive has been appointed baggage master of the steamer Governor Dingley. He will leave tonight to join the steamer at Boston. The Dingley will leave Boston next Tuesday on her first trip to this port.

Captain M. B. Wrayton, of the steamer Amelia is leaving the ship for a well-earned rest. He has been in the South Shore service for more than a year and has given the best of satisfaction to all using his line.

Rev. Miles Howland will be ordained to the priesthood in the Church of the Holy Redeemer, St. Stephen, on Wednesday, July 6. Mr. Howland is a native of St. Andrews, but removed with his parents to Calais, (Me.) while yet quite young. He made his classical course at the Redemptorist College in North-East, and his philosophy and theology in the English Seminary of the Holy Heart in Halifax. In both places he showed excellent talent.

A large number of the young ladies of Main street Baptist church on Thursday evening called at the residence of Miss Cora Colwell, 223 Main street, and tendered her a "kitchen shower." Miss Colwell responded appropriately to addresses presented to her. Both functions were given in view of a happy event which is to take place in the near future.

New Freeman—The Very Rev. Patrick Murray, general of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, will arrive in this city on July 9. This is the first time in the history of the Redemptorist Order that an Irishman held the exalted office of superior-general. It is also the first time that a general ever came to America, and St. John will be the first place that Father Murray will visit on the tour throughout Canada and the United States.

ALEX. MCINTYRE, OF SPRINGFIELD, DEAD

Father of Prominent St. John at Boston Men Passes Away at Age of 92

At his home in Springfield, Kings Co., this morning, Alexander McIntyre died at the age of 92 years. He led an active, useful life and was one of the most prominent men in the district. For many years he was engaged in shipbuilding, but of late he lived on his farm in Springfield. His wife passed away a quarter of a century ago.

Mr. McIntyre is survived by five sons. They are Rev. Dr. W. E. of St. John, Baptist clergyman; Dr. James A., of St. John, and Captain Peter, also of the city; Charles H., a prominent Boston lawyer, and George N., at home. Alexander and Captain W. D. McIntyre of this city are nephews. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in Springfield.

ATTACK ON CITY THIS AFTERNOON

Plans of the Redcoats Promise an Interesting Bloodless Encounter—Major Perley and Major Frost to Head the Forces

A forceful and deliberate attempt will be made this afternoon by a party of determined redcoats under the command of Maj. Perley to prevent a desperate garrison under the leadership of Maj. Frost from escaping from their beleaguered quarters, from which they feel they are practically forced to move, no matter at what cost.

Each party will be composed of men from the 62nd regiment, fully armed, and equally steadfast in determination to win the fray. The smoke of the battle will blow in the neighborhood of Sandy Point road, where it is thought the opposing contingents will meet in bloodless conflict, but of course the exact location cannot be learned in advance.

Considerable interest is being taken in the event in militia circles and it is expected that each party will be in full strength. The plans for the operations are looked upon as guaranteeing satisfactory manoeuvres. The object of the party surrounding the city is to keep within its limits, and prevent going through their lines, the garrison defending St. John. The latter party has discovered, or at least is under the impression that it has, a weak spot in the lines of its opponents, and is making every possible effort to succeed in getting to the world beyond. The outcome will be awaited with interest.

NO SHEET READY FOR THE COURT

Some Delay in Police Court Proceedings—Judge Would Like to Order Whipping for Profanity

The proceedings did not begin in the police court this morning, at 9.30, the scheduled time, as no sheet was in evidence until 9.20 o'clock, almost one hour after Judge Ritchie had taken his seat. The prisoners were too numerous to deal with as was done last Saturday, but when the sheet was brought upstairs, it was not long before the line-up was disposed of.

John Gullivan and James Squires, said to belong to the West Indian steamer, Dalome, were fined $8 each for taking in vain the name of the Saviour in Duke street last night. When Policeman Henry had given his evidence and said that he had heard the men, His Honor said he should like to have them whipped besides being fined.

William Johnson, an aged man who last week was allowed out of jail on suspended sentence on a charge of stealing $75, pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was fined $8 or two months in jail. Fines of $4 each were imposed on Walter Currie, John Gallagher, and James Doyle, charged with drunkenness, and the latter was also fined $8 on a charge of profanity.

FOUND THEM IN PILLOW SLIP, WOMAN SAYS

Edward Pitman and Wife Charged With Taking Articles of Clothing Not Their Property

Edward Pitman and his wife, Mary, pleaded not guilty this morning before Judge Ritchie to a charge of stealing clothing valued at over $10 from Mrs. Charlotte Tobin, Brussels street, on March 20. The complainant said that when the prisoners moved out of her house she missed the articles, which included a fur, a suit of clothes, undershirts, an overcoat, waists and a few more pieces of clothing. Most of these articles were found in the home of the defendants last night by Policemen Scott and Lucas and the street was then made.

Hubbard and wife denied having committed the theft. The woman claimed to have found the articles in a pillow slip outside her door and had kept them as no one came to take possession of them. The case was not finished at the time of going to press.

MAKE A NEW START

Burgess Gave Wife $12 Since Last August—Better Health Now, He Says, and Will Work

An agreement was reached this morning in the case against Henry Burgess, charged with neglecting to support his wife and three children, and by it he consented to try to begin housekeeping again and make provision for the keeping of his family. He admitted having not given his wife any money since February last when he gave her $12, on his return from Maine, and this was the only sum which he had paid to her since August of last year. His wife and their three little children had been compelled to give up their home and live with her father last fall. Burgess told the court that sickness had forced him out of work, but his health having returned, he was now willing to work for his family again. His Honor agreed to this, and allowed him to go on suspended sentence.

AUTO TOUR POSTPONED

Owing to the wet weather, the tour of the New Brunswick Automobile Association, which was arranged to be held this afternoon, from St. John to Sussex and return, has been called off. It will probably be held next Saturday or on Dominion Day. It was thought the roads would be too muddy today to make the trip enjoyable.
