LIKELY TO MEET N.S. ON FRIDAY

New Brunswick Tennis Champions to Compete Next in Dartmouth

Suggested Competition Begin Tomorrow, But This is Not Deemed Feasible

With the New Brunswick tennis championships ended at Rethersay yesterday, interest swings to the inter-provincial play between the premier players of this province and Nova Scotia. These contests will take place at St. George's Tennis Club, Dartmouth, N. S.

LIKELY ON FRIDAY.

It was expected to finish the Nova Scotia championships today at Halifax, though there was a heavy programme to be carried out. In expectation of concluding today, Nova Scotia asked the New Brunswick champions if they could be on hand tomorrow morning to begin the inter-provincial contests. This query came in a telegram from L. A. Gastonguay, honorary secretary of the Nova Scotia association, to J. H. Drummond, secretary of the N. B. association. He replied that the New Brunswick players could not do so, but would be ready on Friday, and the expectation this afternoon was that Friday would see the inter-provincial play on, providing that the weather was suitable. If not, the matches would be under way on Saturday.

The New Brunswick players will be Miss Fairweather, Miss Knight, Miss Henderson, Messrs. Short, Halliday and McIntyre. J. H. Drummond also plans to attend the tournament. Messrs. Short and Halliday left for Halifax this morning by way of Digby. They were to travel from there to Halifax by automobile. S. R. Jones accompanied them.

NOVA SCOTIA RESULTS

DARTMOUTH, N. S., Aug. 19.—The Nova Scotia Tennis Tournament, being played at St. George's Club, here reached the semi-final stage this morning and will, it is expected, be concluded this afternoon. The Nova Scotia champions are scheduled to meet the New Brunswick champions here tomorrow for Maritime honors. The Maritime championships include men's singles, ladies singles, men's doubles, ladies' doubles, and mixed doubles. Games played this morning included: Mixed doubles—C. Edwards and Miss Winnifred McPartridge, South End, defeated G. Neary and Mrs. Neary, Kentville, 6-1, 6-1. J. Butler and Miss Dorothy Symons, Bedford, defeated E. McMillan and Miss G. McMillan, Kentville, 6-1, 6-1. A. G. Wells and Miss B. Cole, South End, defeated H. S. Roper and Miss Dorothy Hawboid, South End, 6-4, 6-3.

LADIES' INTERNATIONAL

With tennis matters absorbing the attention of many at the Edwards and McPartridge match, it was of interest to read of the success of the British ladies in competition with the United States ladies in an international match at Forest Hills, New York, on last Saturday. It was for the Wightcup trophy. The English were successful by four matches to three, winning both the double matches and two singles against three singles. The English team, consisting of Miss Joan Fry, Miss K. McKane, Miss Evelyn Colyer, Miss E. H. Harvey and Mrs. Lambert Chambers, are now playing in the United States championship tournament, for which 64 players are entered.

THREE DAY SESSION TO BE HELD IN CITY

N. B. Funeral Service Association Will Hold Meetings in Seamen's Institute.

The annual convention of the New Brunswick Funeral Service Association will be held in this city August 20-21 and 22 and it is expected there will be a large attendance of the members. The sessions will be held in the Seamen's Institute and features will be a series of lectures by Prof. C. C. Sheppard, of Boston, on embalming, and an exhibit of funeral goods by several manufacturers.

The meeting will be presided over by Bill C. Haxworth, Sackville, president of the association. The local members of the association are arranging entertainment for the visitors and this will include an automobile drive to points of interest around the city.

STR. PREMIER SOLD

River Craft Goes to Saint John River Transportation Company.

The river steamer Premier has been sold to the Saint John River Transportation Co. and the transfer is being made today. The new company will continue to operate the steamer on the same route from Saint John to Chipman. The steamer has been owned and operated for some time by David Coy and Captain Frederick S. Mabey and Mrs. Sarah Mabey.

HAD BEACH OUTING.

The W. M. S. of the Carleton Methodist church held their annual outing yesterday afternoon and evening at McLaren's Beach. Bathing was enjoyed and supper was served on the beach. The society will resume its regular meetings next month. Those present were Mrs. George Barrett, president; Mrs. R. Kindred, Mrs. Hedy Bisset, Mrs. G. Armstrong, Mrs. W. Adams, Mrs. J. Mallman, Mrs. W. Smith, Mrs. S. Cunningham, Mrs. C. Campbell, Mrs. C. Bevers, Mrs. D. Brunstrom, Mrs. W. D. Williams, Mrs. Walters, Mrs. J. Murray, Miss Phyllis Waters and Miss Margaret Ayer.

Mrs. G. F. Smith Left $144,041; Charitable Bequests Are Made

The will of Mrs. George F. Smith of Saint John, who died recently in St. Andrews, disposed of an estate of $144,041. After making provision for several charitable bequests she divided the residue of the estate among the family. The three daughters of Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Guy Robinson, Montreal; Mrs. Norman Guthrie, Ottawa, and Mrs. Allan Magee, Montreal, were named as executors.

THE CHARITABLE BEQUESTS INCLUDED

$800 to the Associated Charities, $500 to the Victorian Order of Nurses, $500 to the Stone Church Women's Auxiliary, and $500 to the Diocesan Women's Auxiliary. In addition to these other specific bequests were $500 to each of her ten grandchildren, $500 to her niece and namesake, Wilhelmina Gordon of Kingston, Ont.; $100 to Minnie Kingsford of British Columbia, daughter of an old friend, and a substantial bequest to Katherine Whitley.

He has again been transferred and is to go to the branch in Cuba. He is now en route to his home in Woodstock to spend a few days with relatives prior to departing for his new field.

FORMERLY OF CITY.

R. W. Gould, of Montreal, secretary of the Quebec division of the Canadian Manufacturers Association arrived on the morning before Mr. Justice Crockett, the case of the Palatine Assurance Company vs. C. N. Beggs et al., of Edmundston, was concluded. Judgment was reserved. This was an action on a surety bond for $800, given to insure payment of premium by the defendant, who was an agent of the company at Edmundston. Evidence was given by the defendant and the two sureties, and argument of counsel was heard. Dr. F. R. Taylor, K. C. and H. A. L. Foxworth appeared for the plaintiff, and Dr. J. B. Baxter, K. C., and A. J. Dionne for the defendants.

ENJOYED PICNIC.

The Catholic orphans enjoyed their annual picnic at St. Joseph's church grounds at Loch Lomond yesterday afternoon. They were taken to the grounds in automobiles and on their arrival there found that the pastor, Rev. Harold Coughlan, had made good preparations for their entertainment. Games of all kinds were enjoyed and supper and other refreshments were served.

As Hiram Sees It

"What was you an' Mont Jones doin' to a poor fellow like me?" asked Hiram, Ritchie out Loch Lomond yesterday?" asked Mr. Hiram, Hornbeam of The Times reporter. "Keeping an eye on him," said the reporter. "Did he win any o' the prizes in the sports?" asked Hiram. "He got the long distance medal for veracity," said the reporter. "Tellin' political yarns—was he?" asked Hiram. "Of course," said the reporter. "How he and William Elder and Deacon McLellan used to divide up the Presbytery, Baptist and Methodist churches, county between them at election time and find out all about them, so that they could ask about twins—or the rheumatism—or any other pet of the family—and create the proper atmosphere for canvassing votes. That was over forty years ago."

"Well," said Hiram, "I ain't sure but what we hev today—By Hira!"

Boys! Which would you rather "figger" Out—Your School Problems—or Dad's?

Yes, we know they are Mother's problems first; she has to be sure to get the right things at the least outlay, but after all, it's generally Daddy who has to dig up the money.

And our problem is to provide the things Mother likes—at prices to please Daddy.

Our problem is all worked out and we are ready for the examination test. Check these over.

50 x 2 - 78

Ho! Ho! What an easy sum, and what an awful mistake! That's right, Tommy, but Mother will need Stockings for you and it will be no mistake to her. Ask her and see.

Two Pairs of 50c. Stockings Tomorrow for 78c

Fine Black Cotton, in one-and-one rib, sizes 7 to 11.

6 x 10 - 38

Yes, Johnny, that's bad arithmetic; but that's the way we will "figger" tomorrow—

Six 10c. Handkerchiefs for 38c

2 x 150 - 258

Teacher would give us a bad mark for that; but Mother knows it's good marking for her—

Two Boys' $1.50 Shirts for $2.58

1350 - 20% = 1080

This is a much harder problem, but we think we have it right. How is it, Boys? Regular $13.50 BOYS' 2 PANT SUITS for 20 p. c. off—Tomorrow $10.80

A very special purchase brings this fine value in time for school opening. Two Pant Suits in styles you boys will be proud to wear. Qualities that will delight Mother and a saving in price that Dad will be thankful for.

A great assortment of Boys' New Fall Suits—all the way from $7.50 right up the ladder to $18.00—and super-value on every rung.

BOYS' SHOES, BLOUSES, UNDERWEAR, TIES—whatever is needed for school wear will be found here in the—

"Well Groomed" Is No Expense

The man whose condition of clothes makes him ring true as a man of clearecut character—he doesn't need to be a spender.

He just keeps up appearances with some system. He believes in keeping a good suit like new, a fair bit longer than the other chap. Dry Cleaning takes out grinding grit with all other foreign matter, giving the fabric a chance to live a natural span of life. Two bucks gets back coat and trousers next day—and you'll hardly know them.
