

NEW BRUNSWICK IS REALIZING TOURIST WORTH

Association Secretary and Party Return After Tour Of Province.

ROADS ALL GOOD; HOTELS IMPROVED

Some Suggestions Made as Result of Observations On Trip.

"We certainly have a province to which we need not be ashamed to invite visitors and our people are waking up to the fact that there is money in the tourist trade," remarked C. B. Allan, secretary of the New Brunswick Tourist and Resources Association, yesterday on his return after a motor trip which had taken him through every county of the province except two.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schofield made the trip together and their road led through Fredericton, Woodstock, Grand Falls, St. Leonard, Edmundston, Riviere du Loup, Rimouski, Campbellton, Dalhousie, Jacques River, Bathurst, Chatham, Moncton and Sussex. They covered nearly 1,000 miles in comfort without accident or car trouble of any kind. Speaking of his trip Mr. Allan said:

ROADS GOOD.
"The roads of New Brunswick were good all the way and we did not have to drive over five miles of bad road in this province. In Quebec the Highway Board has made a splendid job of the road from the New Brunswick border to Riviere du Loup. For the whole of the way it is like a boulevard and the potholes and ruts and other evils which have been pointed out by the road commission are being corrected. The road is a most attractive appearance, especially at the present time when the trees have on their autumn dress and are very beautiful. There are lots of sign posts on the route, pointing the way and giving the distances from place to place. Between Riviere du Loup and Metepedia there is a good deal of bad road, but they are working hard to improve it and have several construction crews at work."

HOTELS IMPROVED.
With reference to hotel accommodations, Mr. Allan said, "We found a great improvement in the hotel service. Several of the hotels have been renovated and improved and a couple of new ones have been opened recently on the North Shore. Other hotels have been enlarged and improved and all are now giving a good service to the public with profit to themselves."

In answer to an article which appeared in The Telegraph-Journal of Sept. 17, attributing certain statements to one of the Tourist Association visitors, Mr. Allan said: "I want to say for our party that in all the places we visited we did not have one poor meal. In fact the surprise was the general excellence of the food, particularly in New Brunswick. Good food, well cooked and excellently served was the general verdict of the visitors at the hotels in these localities and there are many other places in New Brunswick not traveled on this trip where the same conditions prevail."

Mr. Allan said, however, that the party had taken all their meals at the regular hotel hours and that the difficulty for hotels catering for the motor trade was that there was a great uncertainty as to how many must be provided for.

One curious fact was remarked by the party. At none of the hotels at which they stopped did the menu provide baked apples or corn on the cob. Oranges and grapefruits never failed to appear, but the native baked apple, which would have been preferred, was not forthcoming. Corn on the cob was another seasonable native food which would have been appreciated by the motorists but was overlooked by the hotel chefs. The members of the party were inclined to think that in the matter of food tourists as well as residents of the province would appreciate home-grown products more than the imported foods which are everyday city fare.

They also wondered whether the farmers were not overlooking the opportunity of roadside sales of country produce to passing motorists. In Maine the farmer's roadside stall of fruits and vegetables or his invitation to enter the farmhouse to purchase these country products had proved very lucrative for the farmer and given an added interest to many a motor party's trip.

ADVISES OTHERS.
With reference to the round trip which he had just taken, Mr. Allan considered it would be a good thing if more New Brunswick people would make that tour of the province. He said of it: "It gives one a new outlook and a renewed confidence in our province. The splendid scenery, the fine agricultural tracts, potato and fruit-growing sections and the wood-working features of the west side of the province, the magnificent scenic effects and sporting attractions of the Metepedia valley and the North Shore, together with the lumbering and fishing interests of the north and east sides of the province, and the manufacturing, commercial and dairying interests of the southern part of the province, clearly bear out the claim of our Board of Trade Commissioner that New Brunswick, instead of being a poor province, is a rich one. It is a province of new ones have been opened recently on the North Shore. Other hotels have been enlarged and improved and all are now giving a good service to the public with profit to themselves."

ROYAL HOUSES OF ITALY AND HESSE UNITED

Princess Mafalda Becomes Bride of German Prince Philip.

GROOM RENOUNCES RIGHT OF SUCCESSION

Promises Not to Interfere With Catholic Faith of Wife and Children.

RACCONIGI, Italy, Sept. 23.—With time-hallowed ritual, that was beautifully simple, Princess Mafalda, the youthful second daughter of the ruling house of Italy, today became the bride of Philip, Prince of Hesse.

Members of the royal families of Italy, Germany, Denmark, Greece, Rumania, Serbia, Belgium, Austria and Montenegro, and representatives of the dynasties of Great Britain and Spain, witnessed the ceremony.

The function of this morning in the great hall and chapel of the ancient Savoy Castle of Racconigi, was unusual not only in the assembling of a remarkable gathering of princes and princesses "of the blood," but in transcending the wounds of the war and uniting the daughter of the Catholic Italian royal family with the son of a Protestant German house famed for its early welcoming of Lutheran reforms.

POPE LIFTS BAN.
Because of the differences in religion of the bride and groom, Pope Pius granted a special dispensation for the marriage. Philip renounces his rights to his succession to the head of the House of Hesse, which fact makes it certain that Mafalda always will remain a Catholic for it her husband ever became the reigning Prince of Hesse, it would be necessary for his wife and children to adhere to the Lutheran faith.

The spacious marble paved ballroom of the castle had been especially transformed into a bower of flowers. The walls were covered with paintings and heraldic tapestries of rich red and golden hues, interwoven with black. It was here that the civil ceremony was performed.

CIVIL CEREMONY.
The bridal procession was headed by King Victor Emmanuel, with Princess Mafalda on his arm, and Prince Philip accompanying Queen Helena. They were followed into the bridal hall by the guests. The King, the Queen and Queen Mother Margherita, took seats in arm chairs on one side of a red velvet covered table, and Princess Mafalda, Prince Philip, Premier Mussolini and former Premier Tittoni sat on the other side. Signor Tittoni read the marriage articles of the civil code, after which the marriage contract was signed with a gold pen by the bride and groom, and by the King and Queen, as witnesses.

When the civil ceremony had ended, the wedding party formed into procession again, and marched through the halls of the castle to the chapel on the ground floor, where the extremely brief but solemn ceremony of the Roman Catholic church was performed by Monsignor Beccaria, chaplain of the court of Italy. Because of the difference of religion of the bride and groom, the nuptial mass was omitted, but otherwise the ceremony conformed to the Catholic ritual.

The gifts to the bridal couple were numerous and beautiful. Among them a massive silver statue of the Tyrrhenian Neptune, the ancient God of the Adriatic, which is the work of the Sculptor Giambologna. It was sent with the compliments of the Italian government. The senate sent a beautiful example renaissance furniture; Premier Mussolini, two silver vases; the city of Rome an antique vase mounted on a column; the city of Turin a painting by Grosso, and the employees of the royal household, a silver table center. Most of the gifts are objects of art, such as paintings, statues and tapestries.

PITY THE CHILDREN FED ON GHOST CEREALS.

Feed your children upon ghost cereals—if you will, but a farmer would laugh at you if you told him to feed them to his live stock, for he would know that live stock will soon die if fed upon them exclusively. Yet your children have not half the resistance of horses and cows. Then why feed them foods that will kill horses and cows?

Ghost cereals is the name science applies to certain unwholesome cereal foods whose chief claim for your attention is flavor and ease of serving. Now would you not rather buy real foods, especially for your children, than to buy these fancy packages, which, without milk, are hardly foods at all. Certainly you would.

Well, Dr. Jackson's Roman Meal is precisely such a real food. Science proves that it is the darker, rougher parts of the grains that nourish and build sound and vital health. Roman Meal has the dark parts of three whole grains with bran, used in proportions to make a balanced human food. Beef contains 62 food units to the pound; Roman Meal contains over 1,000 food units to the pound. Prevents indigestion, positively relieves constipation. It is a wonderful food. You ought to try Roman Meal. At grocers.

"MR. ZERO" FIGHTS HUNGER AT SOURCE

Learn to Fast, He Tells Followers, Exhibiting 40-Day Fasting.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Urban J. Lehoucq, the "Mr. Zero" who offered homeless men of the nation block three years ago and quartered them in a certain church last winter, has started out to attack the evil of hunger at its source by urging his followers to train their stomachs to do without food.

He unfolded the new plan of campaign to a group of disciples who gathered at his newly opened Hobo University.

As a model for the imitation of his faithful adherents, Zero presented Edmund Wuensch, golden weaver, of Hoboken, who has just completed a forty-day fast. Wuensch was so hungry looking a few days ago that his employer tried to send him home, but the faster seized a bar and chinned himself seven times to show that he had plenty of strength left. Zero, who is as stout and rosy as the healthiest of the two Cheery brothers, proposed three cheers for Wuensch, which were given somewhat perfunctorily.

"Look at him!" exclaimed Zero, enthusiastically. "He has baffled Old Man Hunger. The capitalist system can't get a grip on a man that doesn't have to eat."

WANT NEW FUN PLANS.
PARIS, Sept. 23.—Competition between hotels of the Riviera towns is so keen that they are offering rewards to any one who will invent a new kind of fun for tourists. Fêtes, carnivals and battles of flowers need to be strengthened by some new pastime. The more expensive and bizarre the new fun the better, it is said, and the competition is open to all nationalities.

BEE'S RAID JAIL.
A swarm of bees raided the county jail in Chardon, Ohio, creating a furore in the prison cells, and general excitement about the courthouse yard. They settled in a barrel, containing a small amount of liquor mash, and became so woozy that a bee man scooped them up with his hand and imprisoned them in three hives.

BATS NOT BLIND.
To be blind as a bat is to be blind not at all, for the bat has a very acute sense of sight, according to recent experiments in Washington. The bat's eyes are dead-like, and are almost hidden with the soft fur with which its body is clothed. Its sense of hearing, smell and taste also are very acute.

MODEL YACHT CLUB.
Members Expect to Close Season on Saturday or Next Week.

The Saint John Model Yacht Club program of races for the season is drawing to a close and it is expected that all classes will be finished on Saturday or early next week. Many events have been held since the club was organized in the past few months, and the entering of a number of new yachts this year has added interest in the sport and the competition among the members has been keen.

Last evening there were races for the 36-inch and 60-inch classes. In the former the "Lillias Maud," owned by F. Silliphant, finished first; "Helen B." owned by Roy Belyea, was second, and "Wishang," owned by G. L. Mofford, was third.

In the 60-inch class the "Edna May," owned by George Silliphant, crossed the line first but was disqualified by the judges on the grounds that the owner towed his yacht round a buoy instead of sailing her. The race was accordingly awarded to the "Will," owned by C. Hampton; "Donald," owned by F. Silliphant was second, and "Challenger," owned by Roy Belyea, third.

There is only one more race in this class to finish the series and the standing of the yachts follows:

"Will," C. Hampton 170
"Edna May," G. Silliphant 120
"Challenger," Roy Belyea 70
"Donald," F. Silliphant 60

There are two more races in the 36-inch class, three for the 40 class, one for the 60 class and four for "C" class which the latter race to be concluded this evening.
