RANGE COMBATS BOLSHEVISM

Circular Issued to Educational Institutions by Minister of Public Instruction.

Paris, June 19.—(Associated Press by Mail)—The French government has taken the offensive against Bolshevik propaganda in educational institutions. Leon Bérard, Minister of Public Instruction, has issued a circular in which college professors and public school teachers are warned against the promulgation of extremist ideas in their work. "Bolshevik France," he says, "cannot look with indifference upon a propaganda that recommends violence and the suppression of universal suffrage, with the consequent annihilation of national representation and liberty."

"It has been noticeable since the extremist agitation became active throughout France that the Communist forces were recruited principally among youths and young men from 15 to 25 years of age. Some have inferred from this fact that boys did not come out of public school or college with healthy ideas of government."

Some of the most violent extremist agitators have been public school teachers.

Mrs. Peter Hughes.

After a long illness Mrs. Peter Hughes of Fredericton died yesterday at the age of seventy-five years, leaving three sons and one daughter. Four brothers, of whom is Mr. Justice J. H. Barry of Fredericton, also survive.

BARRISTERS OF SASKATCHEWAN AS SOLICITORS IN ENGLAND

Regina, Sask., July 7.—Arrangements have been concluded with the British government for the admission of Saskatchewan barristers to the standing of solicitors in England on complying with the same requirements as exist in Saskatchewan, according to an announcement made by the Benchers' Association. In consequence the rules of the Law Society of Saskatchewan have been amended to correspond with the order-in-council which it is expected will be put through in the near future.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Mavor-McKim.

In Centenary church yesterday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock Miss Jennie Katherine, daughter of Mrs. James H. McKim, of this city, and James Thompson Mavor, son of Mrs. John Mavor, of Fredericton, were united in marriage by Rev. Neil MacLachlan. The bride entered the church with her brother. She wore a navy blue tailored suit with silver trimmings, with hat to match and ermine neckpiece, with corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet peas. As she walked to the altar the organist, Miss Alice Hea, played "The Voice That Breathed Over Eden." During the ceremony she played "O West Love." The church was artistically decorated with carnations and sweet peas. The bride's four years' service overseas with a divisional train and field ambulance. He was badly shell-shocked and spent five months in hospital. At present he is captain and quartermaster of the 7th Machine Gun Brigade. Mr. and Mrs. Mavor left last evening on a honeymoon to Montreal, Toronto and other upper Canadian cities. They will reside in Fredericton.

Oliver-Kennedy.

At St. Peter's church, Revelstoke (B. C.) in the afternoon of June 28, Rev. J. R. Grettton, united in marriage, Laura Jean, daughter of Mrs. Elbert Kennedy, of Sussex (N. B.), to Hubert Galt, Oliver of Rossland (B. C.). The bride was becomingly attired in a costume of henna, silk crepe, heavily embroidered in gold, with hat of henna and gold, to match. After spending a few weeks at the Arrow Lakes, they will return to Rossland (B. C.).

DIVORCE COURT.

In the divorce court yesterday at Fredericton Mr. Justice Crockett ordered a decree of divorce in the case of William A. Barnett against Ida Mae Barnett, which is a Carleton county case. Evidence was taken in the case of Carrie Maddison vs. William Bruce Maddison with Austin Allen, proctor. This case was from Moncton. The plaintiff and her niece, Mrs. Mabel Steves, gave evidence to the effect that on April 19, 1921, at the residence of the plaintiff in Moncton, both saw the defendant in a room with a woman known as Muriel Flowers. Mr. Allen gave evidence concerning Rev. John Prince, Methodist minister, who married the principals in Moncton in 1906. Court considers.

The case of Andrew John Woods vs. Ada Florence Woods, the plaintiff, in which formerly was a sergeant in the Royal Canadian Regiment in Fredericton and now residing in Moncton, stands until a later date.

The defendant remained case of Mel-bourne Jones vs. Melissa Jones was begun this afternoon. Daniel Mullin, R.C., appeared for the plaintiff (husband) and J. H. Teed for the defendant (wife).

The libel of the plaintiff, who resides at Kars, Kings county, was read, also the reply of the defendant, who is living in Boston. Infidelity on the part of the defendant since she left her husband and removed to Boston, is alleged in the libel. The reply contains counter charges of infidelity on the part of the husband and the statement that the defendant left him because of cruelty and abusive treatment.
