THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1920

3

OUR 81ST ANNIVERSARY IN BUSINESS AND THE 89TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE "LONDON HOUSE" WHICH WAS STARTED IN 1831.

To be celebrated by a seven days' period of great value-giving for St. John people, commencing Saturday, the 17th inst.

This is an annual event and a time of sharing profits with the St. John shopping public in return for the hearty support they have always extended to the "London House."

For months we have been searching the markets for merchandise up to our standard and have succeeded in getting goods at prices decidedly lower than those now prevailing. We have also opened up a whole new floor of departments giving our ground floor twice as much space and also a new whitewear and silk underwear department on third floor.

Every department represented with special offering for this big economy event. We quote here a few important items. There are hundreds of other details of which will be found in tomorrow's evening papers.

Women's and Misses' Suits, Coats and Dresses.

Women's Georgette, Silk and Voile Blouses.

Women's and Misses' Silk and Muslin Undergarments.

Women's and Misses' Corsets, Brasiers and Knit Undergarments of all sorts.

Women's utility Dresses and large Aprons.

Women's and Girls' Sport Sweaters.

Girls' Tub Dresses.

Kiddees' Dresses and Rompers.

Women's and Girls' Hosiery, Gloves.
