THE HOSPITAL.
To the Editor of the Times-Star,
Sir,—Permit me to make a few comments on the present condition of the General Public Hospital, and the way it is managed. In St. John, as in other cities, we have a closed trade union of medical men who make their own fees or wages, supported by the law. They are of equal skill, as the price of their labor is the same.

The hospital commissioners doubt this fact and pick out a number whom they consider more skilled than their fellow-craftsmen and make a further enclosed union whose members alone do the hospital work. In making their choice they keep in mind that blood is thicker than water, and the chosen few then proceed to bleed the private patients through their pockets instead of through the arteries.

As we pay the bills, one would think we should have something to say about who should do the work. What would the citizens say if labor bodies should insist citizens say if inside guards doing the fancy priced jobs. A great many people find it cheaper to go to Boston or Montreal to have an operation performed than to have it done at our hospital.

Now that the market building is cleaned up, don't you think it well to see if any person in St. John would be mean enough to trade on the misfortune of the afflicted at the General Public Hospital. Let the Public Hospital be open for all medical men alike.

Yours, etc.,
LABOR.

BLAMES THE TROUBLE ON "THE INFERNAL RUM"

Judge Ritchie's Comment in Ross Case Before Him This Morning

The case against Elijah Ross, charged with assaulting Mrs. Margaret Gallagher in her house, in Winslow street, west side, on Monday night, and also with breaking furniture there, was dealt with this morning before Judge Ritchie and a fine of $20 or two months in jail imposed on the first charge and the same on the second, but the latter was allowed to stand. G. E. Logan appeared for the defendant. In imposing the penalty, His Honor said that Ross could blame his trouble to "the infernal rum" which he had taken, as he had been sober, the affair would not have taken place.

Mrs. Gallagher said that Ross went to her home on Monday night and demanded the payment of three months' rent which she owed him, but when she told him she had not the money he struck her several times. Some of her boarders came to her assistance, when Ross called her abusive names as well as struck her, and he broke the stove and some dishes.

Four of the boarders referred to, Percy Bizzard, David Rooney, Wm. Yain and Patrick McKenna, confirmed her statements.

Ross told of having fared badly at the hands of some of the boarders and showed signs of having been struck in the face and kicked on the head. He had repeated repeatedly for the street, he said, and was exasperated at the non-payment.

LITTLE GIRL SAYS THEY GOT GRANDFATHER LIQUOR

Charge of Supplying an Interdict is Heard in the Police Court

A charge of supplying liquor to an interdict, David Ramsey, aged 60, was preferred this morning in the police court against Frank Sprague and Wm. McDevitt, of North End. After several witnesses had been examined the matter was stood over a week: Little Pearl Ramsey granddaughter of the old man, told of seeing him "get" a bottle with some money to McDevitt, and later she saw the three men in an alley off Sheriff street. Frederick Ramsey said that his father was an interdict, and he believed the two defendants knew this.

Mr. Sprague and McDevitt denied having given the old man liquor, and the latter also disclaimed all knowledge of it.

ROW ON THE FERRY

One Youth Arrested and Another is Sought By the Police

On Monday evening on the 5.30 trip of the ferry-boat a disturbance was raised by a young man, said to have been drinking, and as a consequence the matter was given an airing this morning in the police court. Walter Walsh was remanded to jail until Wallace Stevens, with whom he is charged with assaulting another man, Wallace Stillman, can be arrested. Efforts are now being made to locate Stevens. Stillman says he saw Stevens, Walsh and another named Greene, in a mix-up and when he interfered he was assaulted.

Chas. Campbell, a deckhand, gave evidence and Superintendent Waring spoke of the dangerous habit of causing a disturbance on the ferryboat, as the crew were apt to be distracted from their work and there was possibility of the boat running out of its course or into the boats.

MR. SPENCER AND MR. CROSSLY

Toronto, April 8th, 1903,
14 Maple Grove.

H. L. Spencer, Esq.,
"Records" Office, St. John, N. B.

Dear Sir:—I am very much disappointed that I did not see you before I left St. John. I had your name down as one that I certainly was to visit, but allowed pressure of engagements to occupy my time so that I missed having your hand and speaking with you face to face. I appreciate your great kindness in sending me the verses as they were originally written, and in your own handwriting. I shall always think of you as I sing the verses, and hope that in a hundred years to come in our Father's mansion, or down on the banks of the river, I may meet you, when we will have ample time to converse about "And Lang Syne."

Yours fraternally,
H. T. CROSSLY.

Mr. Spencer's song, A Hundred Years Come, which was set to music and sung by Rev. Mr. Crossley, will be sung by a quartette of leading vocalists at the benefit concert in the Opera House, Dec. 15th.

SUGAR BOUGHT BY F. S. HEANS.

Three hundred and ten bags of sugar, 24 pounds to the bag, being a quantity in the McLeod warehouse damaged by fire, was sold this morning at public auction to Fred S. Heans, his bid being $124.

A number of wholesale grocers were at the sale but they were not over enthusiastic and the lot was knocked down to Mr. Heans by Auctioneer Potts at the figure named. The price does not represent the actual cost of the damaged shipment, the purchaser, as duty and freight have to be paid, which was said, would bring the outlay up to in the vicinity of $200. The original value of the sugar, including freight and duty was $2,111.43. Some $1,000 worth was believed to be saleable.

It was generally considered that the speculation by Mr. Heans was a good one.

If You Would Add to the Sum of a Man's Home Happiness, Why Not Give Him a HOUSE COAT or GOWN!

It isn't alone the men who smoke who appreciate the comfort of a House Coat, though the term "Smoking Jacket" rather implies that idea. Hence a House Coat is a safely acceptable gift to any man, it's a delight to think of getting into its generous comfort and sitting at ease in a big chair beside the library table, and when men's clothing store is a safe store for women to pick from.
