

The HOME CIRCLE Column

BY X. Y. Z.

Some people give according to their means, others according to their meanness.

The daughter who is the flower of the family is always the one who knows how to best use the flour of the family.

If you want to give a little boy, from six to ten years old, a start for the penitentiary, just allow him the privilege of running on the streets until late bedtime.

It is said that the two best things the Creator allowed to escape from heaven to gladden and beautify earth were women and flowers.

Success does not crown the effort of a youth who stands around the street corners smoking cigarettes and expectorating on the sidewalks.

No one wants an impertinent, swaggering cigarette smoking boy about an office, or as a clerk, book-keeper or stenographer. Girls do not acquire these detestable habits and are, therefore, getting the places.

There is but one rule of strict morality that a man can adopt. That would be to live as pure and perfect a life as he would have his wife live, to avoid associations, habits and language that he would have her avoid. The old idea of one scale of morals for the man and another for a woman is very wrong and until a young man is ostracized from society by the same act that would turn the young woman out in the cold world, social standing is but a farce.

Do not—mother at your housework, father in your study—do not be always "too busy." The little heart wants an outlet, the praised bud wants a kiss, the little hearts have something to tell you, a little grief to bring, a small joy, a game of play expected now and then. Ab, beware! Those requirements will slacken and will cease, if it be too often. "Now run away, dear, father is busy." "Don't be troublesome, dear, mother must do her work."

How great a beauty and blessing it is to hold the royal gifts of the soul so that they shall be music to some and fragrance to others, and life to all! Some women cling to their homes

SPECIALIST SAID HE MUST OPERATE

She Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES" Instead, And Is Now in Perfect Health.

MME. F. GAREAU

153 Papineau Ave., Montreal.

"For three years, I suffered great pain in the lower part of my body, with swelling or bloating. I saw a specialist, who carefully examined me and gave me several tonics to take, which did not help me. Then he told me I must undergo an operation. This, I refused to permit.

I heard about 'Fruit-a-tives' and the wonderful results it was giving because this medicine is made from fruit juices, so decided to try it.

The first box gave great relief; and I continued the treatment, taking six boxes more. Now, my health is excellent—I am free of pain and swelling—and I give 'Fruit-a-tives' my warmest thanks!"

MME. F. GAREAU. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

FOUND BROTHER IN LIST OF DEAD

Acted as Pall-bearer to Nearest of Kin Without Knowing It.

With the American Army in France, June 2.—A pathetic instance of the war occurred in a little cemetery to the rear of the Picardy front recently when an American soldier, acting as a pall bearer at the funeral of several American dead, discovered his own brother, Joseph Ash, among the corpses. The brothers, members of different companies, had met only the day before at the front. Joseph remained there and was mortally wounded that night, dying soon afterwards. His brother was ordered to the rear lines with a body of wood-choppers.

The wood-choppers were working near the cemetery at the time of the funeral, and the chaplain asked them to be pall-bearers. In the midst of the service the chaplain read the name of Joseph Ash. The brother, who stood with bared head in the small group of soldier-mourners, reeled forward, his eyes filled with tears, and exclaimed: "My brother! Oh, my brother!" The chaplain, not understanding, stepped up and placed his arm around the young man's shoulder, saying: "We are all brothers, my boy." The soldier looked at the coffin and shook his head.

"The Germans will pay for your blood, Joe," he said, and then it was that the chaplain and the others around him understood and they led him away.

TRAIN MEN FOR FOURTEEN WEEKS

It Training Not Completed in Canada, It is Finished in England.

Ottawa, June 4.—The adoption of the draft system for sending men to the front has, it was stated this morning by high officials of the military department, given most satisfactory results.

The system calls for a period of 14 weeks' training in Canada for the men. Each man is given a training sheet, on which is recorded the period of training which he has been through. If it is necessary to send recruits over to England before they have completed their full course, their training in the old country continues from the point where it left off here. No effort is being made in this 14 weeks' course to take up the more advanced phases of training. The idea is to give the men a good basis, which may be elaborated on at some point near the front lines.

It has been found that the more advanced features are better taught in the British training camps, where plenty of men who have actually faced the Germans and experienced battle conditions are available. It is also noticeable that the men, after arriving in England, settle down to the business of soldiering with much greater health and zeal than when in Canada.

43,136 MEN OF 19 REGISTERED.

Ottawa, June 4.—Returns received to noon today show that 43,136 men of 19 years of age registered for military service in the month of May. The registration calling on men of 19 to register was published on May 4 and men were required to forward their names and addresses to regiments under the Military Service Act on or before June 1. Some of them will be summoned to the colors before July 1.

Before the 19-year class is called, full investigation will be made into the number of men called and available for service under the Military Service Act. Apart from the 19-year class, the number of men available for service under the act is now approximately 75,000. Investigation will be held to determine how many of these were volunteers, how many are medically unfit for active service, and how many are on leave of absence.

HINDENBURG JOINED KAISER AT CRAONNE

German Field Marshal Inspected Defensive Positions—Has Been Ill.

London, June 2.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg recently has been reported dead or gravely ill, but Paul Rosner, special journalistic attendant of Emperor William, writing in The Lokal Anzeiger, says that on Tuesday Emperor William and von Hindenburg took a long walk between the trenches, craters, wire entanglements, and shell-holes and inspected the defensive positions of the Chemin Des Dames. In a question as to whether he was ill, von Hindenburg emphatically said to the Emperor: "It is very good for me to get a little exercise, your Majesty."

Paris, June 3.—Nearly 200,000 refugees, mostly women and children, have arrived from the Marne district and have been sent into Normandy and Brittany.

110 RECRUITS A DAY.

Of 1,654 in Two Weeks in Manitoba 500 Enlisted Voluntarily.

Winnipeg, June 3.—During the last two weeks in May, Military District No. 10, produced recruits at the rate of 110 a day. The official figures announced today, showed that a total of 1,654 had been secured during this period. Of this number, exactly 500 enlisted voluntarily, while 1,154 were draftees.

WILL RE-EXAMINE MANY DRAFTEES

Tribunals for Men Placed in Higher Categories.

London, June 4.—Many men, who have been ordered for re-examination and as a result received higher categories than those under which they were exempted, are being allowed to appear before tribunals again. They will be allowed to claim exemption on other grounds, as they cannot be exempted on grounds of physical unfitness if they are now placed in either category A or B. Preparations are being made for a general re-examination throughout the district, when medical boards will sit in a number of towns and cities.

QUICK REMOVAL BY CANADINAS

DOMINION TROOPS MAKE GOOD TIME IN TAKING UP NEW QUARTERS.

W. A. Willison, Canadian Press Correspondent, writing under date of May 4, says—From north of Hill 70 to the Souchez, Canada has moved its forces until some of the corps holds part of the line between the Souchez and the Scarpe. The move was made in less than 24 hours. With the infantry came the gunners and engineers, and men of all units and all formations that complete the divisional strength. Roads and routes that had known only occasional traffic were jammed with marching men—their bands leading them—with the guns and ammunition limbers, with field ambulances, with horse and mechanical transport, with motor and lorries and G. S. wagons—until the roadsides were white with dust and the countryside alive with the shouts of men, infantry jostling artillery and mechanical transport threading its way through cots, while staff cars wound in some miraculous way through the turmoil which was order, only outwardly cloaked in seeming confusion. And with all this on the roads, there were "busses" crammed with infantry.

By Light Railways.

Other troops went by light railways and tramways. The area about Vimy was alive as it had not been for months. Battalion headquarters moved in the morning, to find itself in strange and uncivilized quarters at night. Brigade headquarters followed them. Divisional staff reached its permanent destination in the morning, and by night the G.O.C. and selected officers were far away in battle headquarters.

This evening I saw the support headquarters of a brigade and some of the men resting after a long march. After twenty-four hours, clothes were wet. Men slept and ate in their dugouts, but their spirits were high. All around the earth was muffled and riddled with shell holes. Shells "crumpled" overhead, intermittently shaking the walls and bringing the sides and wall down in muddy lumps with each shock. The front line lay ahead without such shelter and with grenades and machine-guns, snipers and bombs, in addition to shells. But men sang as they worked in the gloom.

Never forget what you owe your soldiers, Canada. Your obligation is greater than that of any other nation. They have never failed you. Do not fail them in the arduous years when the war is a memory.

It is the period before the battle. The guns are grumbling and scolding, and the men are grumpy. They are our men going forward, the graves of their great dead on the ridge behind them.

CAMPAIGN FOR THREE THOUSAND MEN TO FARM

In Eastern Ontario Teams of Voluntary Workers Canvass Employers.

Ottawa, June 3.—The campaign for 3,000 volunteers for farm labor in Ontario, 1,000 of whom must be available by the end of this month opened this morning, when teams of voluntary workers, including a number of ladies from the Women's Canadian Club, started a canvass of employers with a view to securing their consent to grant employees leave of absence and to have them replaced by men or women until the volunteers return in the fall.

CASUALTIES REPORTED FOR THE MONTH OF MAY

London, May 31.—Casualties in the British campaign in the West have reached a total of 166,802. The losses were divided as follows:

Killed or died of wounds: Officers, 1,326; men, 29,518.

Wounded or missing: Officers, 6,152; men, 138,569.

British casualties reported week by week have recently been running near the 40,000 mark, evidently representing the heaviest sustained during the heavy fighting that started with the beginning of the German offensive in March. The total reported during April was only 22,475, as the lists apparently did not begin to reflect fully the effects of the carnage sustained in resisting the German thrusts in Picardy and Flanders until the beginning of May.

NO MORE "B" MEN REQUIRED AT PRESENT

Ottawa, June 3.—Orders have been sent out by the Military Service Council to Registrars not to call up any more Class B men, all that are needed for the present have been secured.

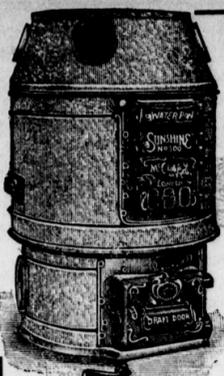

If, and when, are required by the militia authorities, additional calls will be made. It is a question of policy to be governed by military necessities.

It is not anticipated, however, that any more "B" men will be called, at least for a considerable time.

ARMY EQUIPMENT BURNED IN ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, June 2.—Fire shortly before midnight destroyed warehouses Nos. 23 and 24 at the United States arsenal here, with a loss of army equipment valued at more than $3,000,000.

Officers of the quartermasters' department said that more than 15,000,000 yards of khaki cloth for army uniforms had been destroyed, in addition to 15,000 soldiers' service hats.
