—S. E. Mallin, of New Whatcom, Wm., is in the city to-day in the interests of the 4th of July celebration at that place. Our American cousins are generally supposed to carefully bottle up during the year every patriotic sentiment and feeling, and the 4th of July when they take out the cork and let it phiz. At all events our neighbors are nothing if not patriotic, and the Canadians are anxious to respect them for it. We can imagine in the festivities across the line without endangering our own patriotic love of country. There is, happily, in this western portion of two countries the very strongest feelings of friendship existing between the two peoples. The Americans come over in thousands every year to help us honor our Queen and celebrate Dominion Day, and Canadians return the compliment on the 4th of July. A large number, therefore, are expected to go over to Bellingham Bay this year, when among the usual attractions there will be a tournament by the N. W. fireboat, a line of $5 and an international yacht race. No doubt cheap excursions will be arranged for. ship. It was entirely a railway speech from beginning to end, and showed as clearly as mud the beauty of the Davis administration, and what we may expect if they get another chance at our pockets and in regard to railways in future on the islands. Captain Robertson, the opposition candidate, replied so effectively that it remained for one of the oppositionists to propose a vote of thanks to Mr. Booth for his visit.

GALIANO.
—The News-Advertiser has been informed on reliable authority that the other night in the government committee rooms on Westminster avenue a man was approached by a myrmidon of the present unprincipled administration and asked as to whether his name was on the voters' list. On being answered in the negative the myrmidon informed the gentleman in question that if he would pledge himself to vote for the government his name could easily be put on the list. As the time for registration has now expired the above unpalatable fact was a very unpleasant significance and is hereby submitted for the consideration of the electorate in general.

It is understood, says the News-Advertiser, that affairs are still further complicated in Dewdney by the candidature of Mr. Thomas Cunningham, who has announced himself as an independent supporter of the government, in opposition to Dr. Lefevre, who is not likely to regard his interpolation with any charitable eye. Mr. Cunningham's assurance of a complete and crushing victory at the polls is now rendered doubly sure.

The same authority says that intelligence comes from Revelstoke to the effect that Kellie will poll about a quarter of the vote he did last election. If farmers, prospectors and merchants of the north riding are working hard for the defeat of J. M. Kellie, W. Brown (with four candidates in the field) last election, was only defeated by one vote, and will go in flying this election.

On Monday evening Mr. Forster had a meeting at Port Kells. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Forster and afterwards by Mr. Puch, who was followed by Mr. J. T. Wilson in support of Mr. Puch. Then a show of hands was called for, when out of a meeting of about 50 or 60 electors, 9 voted for Mr. Puch and all the rest declared for Mr. Forster.

In Yale the nominations do not take place until Wednesday, and the election on July 11th. The nominations for Kootenay take place to-day and those for Lillooet and Cariboo have been postponed.

The Kootenay Mail, Revelstoke, has been trying to be impartial and independent in its politics, and with a fair measure of success, although its editor is apparently tired of hearing both parties "kick" at the corner he has laid out for his paper. The Mail seems to think that it is either man's fight in North Kootenay, as it is all a question of which is the more popular.

There is no politics about it. Ever since the building of the bugaboo fails to arouse hostility in that constituency, summing up the situation, the Mail says: "We have nothing to attack other than the introduction of personalities, like the booting, generally come back to the thrower. Both candidates are able men, experienced in legislative work, and each commands a respectable following throughout the riding. Most of the electors will vote for purely personal motives. There are no doubt some who will vote the straight party ticket, irrespective of the candidate representing that party. Both are 'good fellows' and have personal friends on the opposite side. A government supporter said recently that he thought Mr. Brown would have a better chance of election if he had come out as a government candidate. But the voters who feel that way are in a minority, and however high political feeling may run in this constituency, it will not be a case of condemning the government or downing the opposition; but has been from the commencement is now, and will be until the election is over, simply a case of Mr. Brown's personal friends against Mr. Kellie's personal friends. This is not politics, but it is what passes for such in this country. It would be difficult to work up an agitation against the government in the upper part of the riding, but it is said that the lower portion is very strong for the opposition. The strength of the two parties in the whole riding is pretty evenly balanced, and which ever candidate wins his majority will be a small one. There is one thing that is conceded all round, and that is that a strong opposition is just as essential to good legislation as a strong government."

Duncan's, B. C., June 23.—The nominations took place to-day. At 1 o'clock the returning officer announced that Sutton had withdrawn, and declared Davis and Mutter elected by acclamation. A meeting was held after the nomination and election. About two hundred settlers were present. Major Mutter said that he would be a consistent supporter of the government so long as they acted in a straightforward way. They had done so in the past, and he was thoroughly in accord with their policy. He considered the premier one of the ablest men he had met, and had no doubt of the prosperity of the country under his administration.

It will probably be several days before the names of all the candidates nominated for the legislature on Saturday are received. In Westminster district, as in Victoria, there are just the two parties to choose between. The candidates are: Riding of Delta—James Puch, government, and Thomas Forster, opposition.

Riding of Chilliwack—C. S. Douglas, government, and Thomas Kidd, opposition.

Riding of Dewdney—Dr. Lefevre, government, and Colin B. Sward, opposition.

For South Victoria, J. M. Elbert, C. C., and Joseph W. Carey were nominated. Messrs. Nicholson and Chandler withdrew at the last moment.

Captain Robertson, opposition, and J. P. Booth, government, were nominated for North Victoria.
