THE LATE ALFRED GRAVES.

During the course of Sunday School at St. Mary's boys' classes yesterday, Rev. Father McQuillan took occasion to remind the boys of the death of Mr. Alfred Graves, for many years one of the most faithful and painstaking teachers of the Sunday School, and formerly a director and president. Father McQuillan paid a warm tribute to the deceased, and asked the boys of the Sunday School, who could arrange to do so, to attend his funeral today, and to remember him in their prayers.

THE MISSION CONCLUDED

After a most successful and gratifying week—Large con-gregations yesterday.

The Anglican general mission of the deanery of Halifax was closed yesterday, after a week's hard work on the part of the missioners but one which every clergyman in the city is pleased with the relieved. The sarmon ended with a strong, earnest appeal to all not to give the mere dregs of their life to Him, but to conservate all the days that remain to His service.

The services at St. Mark's church yesteriay were attended by record congresstions, both morning and evening, and oboth occasions the missioner, Rev. R. C. Bligrave gave the address. In the morning he spoke on Heaven, and gave a most ling her took list text from 5th the property of the control of the control of the evening her took list text from 5th the present to the text from 5th the present to the service of the week's discourse, and added much advice. The missioner pleaded much advice the week's discourse, and advices when the venture gervice, was sung by Miss Burgoyne and her rich, sweet voice filled the church. As an outcome of club will be formed. At the close of the service, mas unably to the congregation went to the vestry and bade good by to the missioner, and all representations.

At St. Paul's Mission the Rev. R. P. McKim spoke last night to an audience which packed the hall. His appeals were marked by the same heart-reaching earnestness which has characterized all his addresses here. Earlier in the day he addressed the Sunday morning school, and at three o'clock in the afternoon spoke to a meeting of men.

Archdeason Armitage, in the course of the service last evening, gave public acknowledgment to the missioners of the thanks of the parish for their services.
Dean Robinson left for Winnipeg this morning at cight o'clock. Mr. Mckkim returns to St. John to night.

The feature in connection with the concluding services of the mission at St.
George's yesterday-was the mass meeting for men at 4 p. m. conducted by Rev. J. A.
Robinson, chief missioner at St. Paul's.
Dr. M. A. B. Smith was the chiarman, The subject of his address was "the Definition of a Man," based on the words of Jeremiah "Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem," etc.

of the season, a steamer that should have come here in place of the Royal Edward.

The sister city in handling this steamer, the Canada, also set a pace for St. John postal officials, rairoad men and laborers.

Over two thousand packages of mail were taken ashore fron the steamer and placed on a waiting train, which yout away for ports of the treasurer, general secretary and those of the different committee number of important matters were discussed, among them the subject of mem-bers' fees. It was finally decided that a committee of three would start out after the first of the new year and collect some of the fees that are due, of which there are quite a number.

The membership fees are the only regular source of income that the Y. W. C. A. lar source of income that the Y. W. C. A. has. Every year the members hold a barsar to raise funds for the Association, and if possible pay off something on the mortgage on the building. Now and then some kind friend gives, a small donation, but the "Y. W. is very mich in need of funds at the present date.

The boarding home of the Y. W. is crowded all the time and the number of applicants is increasing every day. There are several on the waiting list at present and all these are girls for whom a home like the Y. W. is really meant, and whom the Y.
