ROOSEVELT AND SUNDAY SCHOOL

President Roosevelt sent the following message to the Sunday school children of Brooklyn who paraded in Prospect Park on Children's Day:
"I am glad to have a chance to express to the children of the Sunday School Union how glad I am to know that they are fitting themselves to become in the future Christian citizens of this great republic.
"Sturdy, self-respecting morality, a readiness to do the rough work of the world without flinching, and at the same time an instant response to every call on the spirit of brotherly love and neighborly kindness—these qualities must rest at the foundation of good citizenship here in this republic. If it is to achieve the greatness we hope for it among the nations of mankind.

"Therefore I send greetings to the children and I send greetings especially to those who are training them in these difficult duties."

KING EDWARD.

There Has Been Steady Improvement in His Condition.

LONDON, July 2.—King Edward has passed another good day. The quiet and routine of the royal sick room was varied today by the excitement of receiving the music and cheers of the Indian troops as they marched past the palace and greeted Queen Alexandra on the balcony. King Edward demanded a full account of the review and the formal report made by the Prince of Wales was supplemented by the personal narrative of the Queen.
His Majesty dictated a letter to the Duke of Connaught, commanding him to compliment the colonial and Indian troops upon their excellent appearance, and to thank them for their expressions of loyalty which he had heard with pleasure in his sick room. King Edward was somewhat disappointed that he was not able to see the march past of the troops; he had hoped that this would be possible from an invalid couch in a window of the palace, but the King's doctors were unwilling that their patient should risk this exposure and excitement, and His Majesty had to content himself with hearing the troops without seeing them.

The Prince and Princess of Wales gave a brilliant dinner party at York House tonight in honor of the visiting Indian princes.

A unique and impressive scene was witnessed in St. Paul's Cathedral this evening, when some 2,000 physicians and the building and offered prayers for the King's recovery. Many of the doctors wore their academic robes. A litany was sung in procession, the doctors joining in the singing. At the conclusion of the service the congregation sent a message to Queen Alexandra expressing its fervent wishes for His Majesty's speedy recovery.

LONDON, July 3.—The following bulletin was issued regarding King Edward's condition at 11 o'clock this morning from Buckingham Palace:
"The King has slept well and nothing has occurred to mar the excellent progress His Majesty is now making."
(Signed)

TREVES, LAKING, BARLOW."

LONDON, July 3.—The British Medical Journal in expressing a similarly satisfactory view of the King's condition, says:—

"At no time has it been necessary since the operation to use sedatives to induce the King to sleep. To medical men who have seen the daily bulletins it has been obvious that the statements therein were entirely frank. There was great anxiety at first. Sir Frederick Treves did not go to bed for seven nights. But the load of anxiety is now lightened, if it has not entirely disappeared. The rumors regarding the King's general health are altogether unfounded and confidence is now felt that, thanks to an unusual degree to his sound constitution, the King will make recovery."

LONDON, July 3.—Discussing the King's uninterrupted progress, the Lancet says:—"It has been necessary to remove the drainage tubes, as they could not be tolerated, and gauze plugs are now used instead. The wound is gran-ulating satisfactorily, the discharge has diminished and is perfectly inodorous.
His Majesty's temperature has been normal since June 26. His constitutional condition is admirable."

A GREAT STORM

Causes Loss of Life and Property in Michigan.

DETROIT, Mich., July 3.—A terrific storm swept through the Southwestern portion of Michigan late yesterday afternoon and in early evening, killing one man, injuring many and resulting in great damage to property. Near North Adams the residence of Mrs. Van North was demolished, the barn of Mr.
Wood was blown from its foundation and another house unroofed. Mrs. Patton, with Mr. and Mrs. Gamble, her son-in-law and daughter, had taken refuge in the cellar and all were seriously injured. Mrs. Van Patton probably fatally. At Leonidas it is reported that a farmer living near there was dashed to death against a telegraph pole. Near Mendon John Bowman, an aged man, was severely injured by falling rafters in the collapse of the home of Henry Powers. Reports from Battle Creek, Marshall, Mendon, Washtenaw and towns state that wires are down and crops and property have sustained great damage.

DETROIT, Mich., July 3.—A Journal special from Hillsdale, Mich., says a report has reached there that seven persons were killed by a tornado and cloudburst early today at Moscow, 15 miles from Hillsdale. No particulars have been received yet.

MISSING STEAMERS.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wn., July 3.— The steamer Senator from Nome, June 24, denies the story brought by the Centennial that tidings had been received from the missing steamers Jaeno and Portland. Captain Paterson says emphatically that when he left Nome no information had been received from the two vessels and further that the Theis had returned to port to replenish her coal supply without having found any trace whatever of the steamers.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL

Standing Committees Met Today to Prepare Reports.

The Delegates Entertained By the Ladies of the Golf Club This Afternoon—Mayor's Reception
This Evening.

Everything that could be done to make York Theatre, the headquarters of the Women's Council, comfortable and convenient, has been done. The different rooms have been decorated by the skilful hands of a committee of ladies, and now look cool, quiet and inviting. Flowers and potted plants form the chief ornaments of the auditorium, where the business sessions of the council as a whole will be held. A bureau of information has been established in one of the offices, in charge of Mrs.
T. H. Bullock, and here every thing for the convenience of the delegates is ready to hand. Tables are supplied with stationery and those in charge and attending on the room are themselves bureaus of information. Down stairs places are prepared for the meeting of committees and these were occupied this morning. The assembly room is decorated in green and white.
Wreaths of cedar hang on the walls and the pillars are entwined with evergreens over white. Costly rugs cover the floor and soft easy chairs fairly invite the delegates to rest. In the dining room, where luncheon will be served each day to the members of the council and to all others on the payment of a small fee, the decorations are simple, but beautiful. The linen, the glass and silverware with the tempting food form a decoration which appeals strongly to the hungry. The prevailing colors are those of the council, pale and dark blue.

By ten o'clock this morning most of the visiting delegates and many of the local members of the council were present. A few minutes were spent in an informal social gathering, but sharply on time the bell was rung to announce that the business sessions were on, and the members scattered to the various committee rooms. The meetings this morning were rather of a preparatory character, getting everything in readiness for the formal opening of the council tomorrow morning. The committees which met this morning were:
Committee on Laws for the Better Protection of Women and Children.— Mrs. Bullock, convener.

Committee on Domestic Science.—Mrs.
Hoodless, of Hamilton, convener.
Committee on the Custodial Care of Feeble Minded Women.—Mrs. Cummings, of Toronto, convener.

Committee on Promotion of the Industrial and Fine Arts.—Mrs. Thomson, in absence of Mrs. Dandurand, convener.

Committee on Care of the Aged Poor.— Mrs. Cummings, convener.
Committee of Women on School Boards.—Mrs. Boomer, London, convener.

Committee on Raising of Loan for Doughbor Women.—Mrs. Thomson, in absence of Mrs. Fitz-Gibbon, convener.
Committee on Pernicious Literature.
Committee on Immigration.—Miss Laidlaw, Montreal, convener.

Committee on Bureau of Information.
Mrs. Thomson, convener.
Committee on Press.—Mrs. Cummings, convener.
At noon luncheon was served in the dining room by members of the local council. The ladies in charge were:
Mrs. John H. Thomson, Mrs. Geo. F.
Smith, Mrs. D. Tapley, Mrs. Alex. Wilson. They were assisted by a committee of eighteen young ladies.

This afternoon the executive and finance committees are meeting preparing their respective reports for presentation tomorrow. The executive committee is one of the largest and most important of the sub-divisions of the council. It consists of the president, the elected vice-presidents, the honorary vice presidents, the provincial vice-presidents and the presidents, or their representatives, of the different organizations affiliated with the council.
These number about twenty-eight. In all, and delegates are present from all except two. In full strength the executive numbers about fifty-six. About thirty-five are in attendance this afternoon.

This afternoon, by invitation of the club, the delegates will take tea at the club house on the links. Buckingham will call at the York Theatre about five o'clock, immediately after the close of the executive and finance committee meetings, to take the guests to the links. The ladies in charge of the tea are: Mrs. C. J. Coster, Mrs. J.
Douglas Hazen, Mrs. Frank Stetson, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Silas Alward, Mrs. Fred Harding.

This evening his worship the mayor and Mrs. Walter W. White will tender a reception to the delegates and others in the assembly rooms of the theatre.
Afternoon or evening dress may be worn. Harrison's orchestra will be in attendance and light refreshments will be served.

RUSSIAN IGNORANCE.

Labor Riots Caused By the Introduction of Machinery.

LONDON, July 2.—A despatch to the Reuter Telegram Co. from St. Petersburg says there have been labor riots for the past few days at Rostov-On-Don, in the province of Ekaterinoslav, southern Russia. There have been numerous collisions between the troops and the rioters; the troops fired and many of the rioters were killed or wounded.

The outbreak at Rostov-On-Don continues the Reuter correspondent, somewhat resembled the peasant riots in the central provinces of Russia in the early spring. The leaders of the last riots were strangers in the district; they were dressed in fantastic uniforms and adorned with decorations. They proclaimed themselves to be agents of the czar, and preached the destruction of all machinery which reduced the number of laborers and brought the masses to starvation.

A fanatical mob, inflamed with this idea, declared war on the factories in the name of the czar, and had already wrecked many manufacturing establishments by the time the troops were called out.

MILITARY CADETS

Leave Sandhurst Protesting Their Innocence of Incendiarism

LONDON, July 3.—Twenty-nine "rus-ticated" cadets of the Royal Military Academy, Sandhurst, left that institution today, protesting that they had not been connected with the recent incen-dary fires at the college. A time limit of forty-eight hours given by Lord Roberts, the commander-in-chief, to the cadets to deliver up those who have been guilty of starting the many recent fires at the college, in default of which the "rustication" of all the cadets was to be ordered, expired tonight. It was understood that a number of the cadets would leave immediately, but the war office was endeavoring to suppress all the information on the subject.

OFF TO LABRADOR.

HALIFAX, July 2.—Colonel Glazier of Albany, N. Y., and a party of ten arrived by steamer from Boston this afternoon bound for Labrador, where they will spend three months in exploration work in the interest of New England colleges. Colonel Glazier says that of no part of North America is so little known as Labrador, and he hopes to be able to give to the world much that is new regarding its geology and resources.

THE SHIPPING COMBINE.

PARIS, July 2.—At a meeting today of the Colonial Group of Deputies, M.
Etienne, vice-president of the chamber, delivered a long address, in which he pointed out the danger which threatened French naval defense and the merchant marine from the formation of an American shipping combine. He declared that vigorous measures must be adopted if the French flag was not to disappear from the Atlantic coast.
The Colonial Deputies decided to present an interpellation of the matter to the chamber.

POPE AND PHILIPPINES.

ROME, July 3.—Judge William H.
Taft, civil governor of the Philippine Islands, today received a long cablegram from Secretary Root, containing the department's final instructions concerning the note relating to the disposal of the Friars' lands, which was drawn up here Tuesday, and this afternoon Major Porter, of the office of the Judge Advocate General of the army, delivered the note to Cardinal Rampolla, the papal secretary of state.

THE FIRE RECORD.

HARTFORD, Conn., July 3.—A fire early this morning destroyed almost all the big plant of the Capewell Horse Nail Co., and partially burned a dwelling house across the street from it. All of the Capewell Company's property except the office, storeroom, boiler room and annealing shop was burned down.
The estimated value of the plant was between $300,000 and $400,000. It is said that insurance will nearly cover the loss.

STREAMS DRIED UP.

SANTA FE, N. M., July 3.—A crop report bulletin shows severe drought in all parts of the territory. At Abiquiu, Arizaba county, the Chalmers river has dried up for a second time in a hundred years. Other streams in that section are also lower than ever before.

BAD BANK MEN.

SALT LAKE, Utah, July 3.—Alexander Robertson, paying teller, and Harry T. Duke, assistant cashier of the Wells Fargo Bank of this city, were placed under arrest yesterday charged with embezzling $60,000 from the funds of the bank.

THE WEATHER.

FAMINES IN CENTRAL INDIA.

Anna R. Evans told at a missionary meeting in Toronto last week of dealing with the two famines in Central India, in 1897 and 1900. She had frequently been asked if the horrors had not been exaggerated, if the pictures shown in the papers were not exceptional. Her reply was that all that had been written and drawn failed to give any adequate idea of those horrors. The workers simply became hardened to it, and only kept up by doing every day all they could. If they had stopped to think they would have been unable to endure it. In the worst stages the people came asking not for food or for shelter, but simply to be buried, that their bodies might be kept from the vultures and the jackals. Though the last famine was the more severe fewer lives were lost, because the government was on hand with its relief works sooner. The famine had opened the eyes of the people to the benefits of Christianity, and now the missionaries, instead of meeting with rebuffs, could not respond to all the invitations from communities and individuals.

STRENUOUSLY DRUNK.

At dinner the other evening Col.
George T. Denison, the British Empire League delegate from Canada, said it was too bad to revive Toronto police court stories about him in this country.
Having said that, he volunteered one himself. On a previous visit to England he contributed an article to the Westminster Gazette on the military aspects of imperialism, which was reprinted in the Toronto papers. On his return to the magisterial bench one of the first culprits to face him was an Irishman named Maher, an old offender. "What's the matter this time, Maher?" asked the Colonel. "Drunk, yer worship," responded Maher. "Sure, I read the fine article ye wrote in the English papers, and the grand fightin' sentiments av upset me, sorr."
"Maher," said the Colonel, "you are discharged, as it seems you read that article, which I believe few other people in this province did." "It's yourself is a rale sojer," said Mr. Maher, bowing to the Colonel as he left the dock.—

THE IRISH QUESTION.

A long and heated debate on the Irish land question was precipitated in the house of commons last night.
Thos. W. Russell (liberal) moved the adjournment of the house to discuss the pending evictions from the estate of Lord de Freyne, in Roscommon county, in connection with which Lord de Freyne recently had writs issued against large numbers of the Irish parliamentary party, whom he charged with conspiracy in the matter.
After discussion by Mr. Russell, Mr.
Wynndman and others, Russell's motion was defeated, 231 to 122.
