The day of prayer for colleges and schools of learning was fittingly observed in the Union Baptist Seminary at St. Martins. In the absence of Principal Simpson, who was attending Board meeting in St. John, our venerable brother, I. E. Bill, D. D., preached in Seminary chapel at 11 a. m. A thoughtful, orderly and impressive discourse was delivered by this aged servant of God from Proverbs 4: 18, without scrap or note before him. It was good to be there and listen to the gracious words that fell from the lips of one whom we knew had experienced almost all he told us about the commencement, progress and consummation of the divine life in the soul? A very precious praise service was held in the chapel at 5.30 p. m., and at 7 p. m. a prayer meeting was conducted by Bro. Atkinson, one of the students. The Lord was manifestly present, and a rich blessing was received by every worshipper. The Christian students in this institution seem generally to be alive and earnest as such. They are anxious that their number be increased, and hence are praying for a gracious revival of religion to break out amongst them. Let us all unite with the teachers and students in that prayer. Our beloved Acadia College and Horton Academy were frequently referred to in the prayers. Surely God has heard and will answer these petitions presented in the name of Jesus, His Son. Let us expect it, and so keep on praying for our academies and colleges till the blessing comes. P. Further Report on Hymnal. The first order is now in from Toronto, and the following churches have ordered this week: Canan, N. S.; Central Pennfield, N. B.; Sandy Cove, Digby; Welsford, N. B.; 1st Grand Lake, N. B.; Juddore; Onslow; Canard; Pt. William. Heard from, going to adopt it soon: Amherst, Truro. Note.—Will every one ordering the Hymnal please give full address, nearest station, etc. So no mistakes will occur; it will be helpful in shipping. Don't fail to send your cash with order. Geo. A. McDONALD, Secretary. Dr. Bill's Birthday. The residence of our venerable brother, I. E. Bill, D. D., was thronged on Tuesday evening, Feb. 19th, by his many friends in St. Martins, who came on this the 34th anniversary of his birth, to offer him their hearty congratulations. A few friends elsewhere, the teachers and students of our Seminary, and his late parishioners and good wishes for our highly esteemed brother by presenting him on that occasion with a sum of money amounting to $112.00. The doctor seemed remarkably fresh and vivacious for one of his years, and, though much surprised by the visit and gift, in expressing thanks for the kindness shown him, he used with good effect his well known talent for ready speaking. Short addresses were made by several others present, one or two by his wife and the visitants departed, each one bearing with them a heartfelt benediction from God's aged and honored servant. We all feel honored in having him among us and hope he may be spared to us yet many years. The pastor of St. Martins Baptist Church, out of a good heart towards his brother pastors, wishes every one of them had by their side such an expander (we call him pastor emeritus) as I. E. Bill, D. D. P.

Christ the Sure and Only Foundation.

My hope is built on Christ alone. Eph. 2: 20. His life hid for my guilt stone. Acts 20: 28; Eph. 1: 7. My justifying heavenly dew. Romans 4: 5. In Jesus' perfect righteousness. NEWS FROM THE CHURCHES.

MATLAND, Yarmouth Co.—The cause here is making steady and substantial progress. Since the beginning of the new year the acting pastor has given the hand of fellowship to twenty new members. Fourteen of these have united by baptism, three by letter and three by experience. Some special services are still being held, and others—not a few—are expected to find a home long in the Church. Recently two brethren were ordained to the office of Deacon in the Beaver River section of the Church, at which service Rev. F. M. Young, of Ohio North Temple Church, preached; Revs. A. Cogwell and G. H. Goudy took part in the ceremony of ordination. COM. LOWER AYLESFORD.—The Lord's work is prospering with us. We commenced special services during the week of prayer in the Meadowvale section of this Church. Two have followed the Lord in the ordinance of baptism, and five have been received and will be baptized on Lord's day. Heads of families who have hitherto been indifferent to their souls' eternal interest are seeking the Lord. Over forty persons in sections of this Church are awakened to see their need of Jesus. Greenwood section has commenced cottage prayer meetings, and the view of aiding their pastor in his work. William Bluet, the Irish evangelist, came along in January and did us good service. We have praying bands all around us, and talented men who can lead meetings equal to a minister. In the Tremont and North Kingston sections we have strong Sabbath Schools well lit up with the leading lights of the Church. May God bless all our pastors and churches with refreshings from on high. E. H. HOWE.

MONCTON, N. B.—Since the beginning of this year, forty-five have been added to the Moncton church by baptism and sixteen by letter and experience. Bro. Hinson has returned from Halifax, where he has been assisting Bro. Cline. The outlook there is good. PRINCE WILLIAM, York Co., N. B.—Since my last writing our meetings continued with interest. On Sabbath morning, 24th inst., after an instructive sermon by pastor C. Elroy, we again revived the baptismal waters, when five believers were immersed; one was a gray-haired man of sixty-four years, in declining life, followed by a little boy from the Sabbath-school in the early morning of life, only nine or ten years old, who, after coming out of the water, was given in the arms of his father, a man of over fifty years of age, who was himself baptized the previous Sabbath. Truly God has been working wonders in our midst. In the evening our good Bro. J. W. S. Young, preached his closing sermon with us. The meeting was deeply affecting, and was continued to a late hour, quite a number coming forward for prayer. Bro. Young left Prince William this morning, expecting to pay a short visit to Brother Thomas at Mangerville. He carries with him the good wishes and prayers of a goodly number of happy Christians, who have become active workers in the old Prince William church, and whom we fondly hope may help to carry in God's name her standard forward to greater victory. Pastor C. Elroy has spent considerable time of his late in Kingsclear, a portion of his field, where many drops are also falling. But I must not attempt to report definitely for my brethren there, lest I report inaccuracies. Baptisms in all to date, 36; united with the church, 33. LEVENEY ESTABROOK, Church Clerk. FEB. 24. CAMBRIDGE, NARROWS.—The good work of the Lord still continues. Nine were baptized on Lord's day, 24th. Others are enquiring the way. Several requested prayer for the first time last evening. M. P. KING, Feb. 27. CORNWALLIS ST. BAPTIST CHURCH.—We are in the midst of a glorious revival. Last Lord's day we administered the ordinance of baptism. Meetings are largely attended, and the outlook hopeful. The children in the Sunday-school are becoming very anxious, and are inquiring the way to Zion. We expect to trouble Jordan soon. A. W. JORDAN.

RICHMOND, Carleton County, N. B.—We have been holding missionary meetings in my churches this month. The first was held at Union Corner, Feb. 11, at which time Rev. Thomas Todd delivered an eloquent, interesting, and instructive discourse concerning the wisdom of giving the Gospel to all the world. We were pleased to see and hear the hero of a like well-fought battle. We also had a like meeting at McKenzie's Corner, Feb. 22, at which Rev. Mr. Grant gave a brief but interesting and inspiring exposition of the second verse of the sixth chapter of the first Epistle to the Corinthians. Contributions for missions were taken at both of these services, resulting in practical evidences of the interest taken. We wish to place the different phases of this work before each of our churches and congregations; and in most earnestly hope that they will take hold of it with a will and spirit worthy of their apostolic ancestry. We shall move on to other churches just as soon as Brethren Todd and Grant signify their readiness. J. C. BIRKBECKY, P. S.—The contributions were as follows: Union Corner, $4.43; McKenzie's Corner, $4.21. FEB. 25. HALIFAX.—Two young men were baptized by Pastor Williams of the Dartmouth Church, in the baptistry of the First Baptist Church in the afternoon, and in most earnestly hope that they will take hold of it with a will and spirit worthy of their apostolic ancestry. We shall move on to other churches just as soon as Brethren Todd and Grant signify their readiness. J. C. BIRKBECKY, P.
