

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Henry Percy Walker. An hour before mid-day, in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few invited friends, the bride, becomingly dressed in a pearl colored silk, and the bridegroom, with Mr. Arthur Roberts, the brother of the bride, as best man, and Miss Emma Swan as maid of honor, in the mellow light of the darkened parlor, the couple were made man and wife by Rev. F. L. Payson. After the ceremonies and when the congratulations and best wishes of those present had been extended, the company adjourned to the dining room where a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Walker took their departure on the one o'clock train en route for Fredericton, where they will make their home, during the winter. The couple are widely and favorably known, and the esteem of their host of friends was attested by the many and costly presents. Mr. Walker is the nephew of Messrs. D. W. Hogg & Co., the famed goods packers, and has spent a portion of each of the past six years in his city. Mr. and Mrs. Walker arrived here on Saturday, and received a warm welcome.

MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Book Store, Main street, and at the streets by E. McCoy.]

Jan. 18.—The organ recital in the Central Methodist church, on Friday evening was the event of last week, which was otherwise a quiet one in society circles. The announcement that Mrs. Harrison will sing never fails to draw a large audience in Moncton, but when the attractions of Prof. Ryder, of Boston, and Mr. Caldwell, organist of the Macysville Methodist church, were added to the proposed bill of fare a rare musical treat was anticipated, and the expectation was more than realized; for the recital was pronounced one of the best musical entertainments ever held in Moncton. The church was filled almost to overflowing and the audience was fully as enthusiastic as it was large. Mrs. Harrison was in excellent voice and her solos were received with rounds of applause, especially the one in which she sang "The Song of the Lark." The organist, Mr. Caldwell, was also in excellent voice, and his playing was much appreciated. The chorus by the choir, led by Mr. J. H. Wetmore, was well received, but the gem of the entertainment was "A Teumest at Sea," by Prof. Ryder, which held the audience spell-bound by its exquisite melody and beautiful lyrics. The organ was a very fine one and the congregation of the Central Methodist church are fortunate in securing so excellent an instrument. I believe Mr. Caldwell is a new device for providing entertainment for those in search of amusement of a mild nature, and at the same time turning an honest penny, for the church fund. They are called "Auction Societies," and consist of readings, readings, coffee, and cake, conversation, interchange of thought and the auction of various useful, and ornamental, articles at the close. A very successful one was held on Wednesday evening, and I believe they are to be continued weekly by Mr. A. E. Williamson, who was assisted by his ability as an auctioneer, and almost succeeded in convincing his hearers, that he had mistaken his vocation in life, and should be widelade the auctioneer's hammer, which in his hands would prove mightier than the word.

ADDITIONAL HALIFAX NOTES.

The meeting of the St. John's Association at Government house on Wednesday afternoon was attended by a great number of people and was in every way successful. The large hall room was quite filled, an interested audience in addition to the members of the classes who had passed successfully and were presented with certificates. Of these latter there must have been speaking roughly, about a hundred and fifty.

St. John's Association presented the certificates with a short speech which expressed his pleasure in doing so, and a vote of thanks was afterwards tendered him for his taking interest in the association, of which he is a life member. The ladies' classes which had been instructed by Dr. L. H. Hare then presented him with a very handsome silver ink stand on a silver stand, containing a silver pen handle and pencil case.

Among the ladies who received certificates was Mrs. M. Morrow, Mrs. James Morrow, Miss Troup, the Misses Stairs, the Misses Wood, Miss Townsend, Mrs. Acworth, Mrs. F. Jones, Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. MacLaurin and a great many others.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Thomson had a small colloquial party for Mrs. Andrews which was I hear very pleasant, and comprised most of the energetic members of society.
